Heiskell Man Charged With Inciting a Riot and Civil Disorder

U.S. Attorney J. Douglas Overbey and FBI Special-Agent-in-Charge Joseph E. Carrico announced the unsealing of a federal criminal complaint against Dominic Brown, 18, of Heiskell, charging him with inciting a riot and civil disorder. Brown was arrested earlier today, and made his initial appearance today in the U.S. District Court in Knoxville, Tennessee. According to allegations made in the June 4 complaint, on May 30, 2020, Brown posted messages on his Snapchat account that were intended to incite and organize a riot at the West Town Mall in Knoxville. In one post, Brown stated, "we are not each other's enemy only enemy is 12;" the number "12" is slang term that means law enforcement officers. In another post, Brown stated the following regarding a published news story that law enforcement officers were taking threats to West Town Mall seriously: "ok bet lol. [expletive] they ain stopping [expletive] haha I done got felonies and on scene he made contact with the complainant, who stated her and her husband were driving on Dailey Ave when they saw a little girl walking in the roadway, and stated the little girl had a pee soaked diaper, and had a small sore on her bottom lip. Complainant made several attempts to locate a parent.

Cpl. B. Smith arrived on scene to find a twin boy sibling to the girl locked outside the residence, screaming and very scared of law enforcement. Cpl. Smith knocked on the door for 4 to 4 minutes before the father identified as Thomas Mika came to the door dazed from sleep. Deputy could smell a strong odor of an alcohol beverage on his person. Mika did state he had drank last night and did not know his kids were outside. Deputy ask Mika if he could inspect the home for living condition for the children for a DCS referral he agreed. On entering the residence Deputy did find a small baggie of marijuana on the counter in plain view in reach of the children. DTF DeBoer was called to the scene where several other narcotic items were located. Thomas Mika was placed under arrest and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

y'all ain stop [expletive] [expletive] outta here." Brown also made two additional posts to his Snapchat account which contained images depicting maps of the interior of West Town Mall and made an additional post which stated in part, "If we get 300 people we can raid the mall and everything in there...."

According to the complaint, Brown also posted instructions to others and updates of his own preparations for the riot via his Snapchat account. In one post, Brown instructed, "be there by 10:30, lace your shoes, wear masks and gloves. Bring hammers bricks whatever you want." In another post, Brown stated, "clique up before all y'all get active so we all show up at once [expletive] the waiting a hour on slow pokes clear your agenda if you comin. 10:30."

The complaint also alleges that, on May 31, Brown was observed by law enforcement officers participating in a civil disorder in the downtown area of Market Square. Law enforcement officers observed Brown picking up a trash can lid filled with an unknown liquid and striking a law enforcement officer in the head while the officer was seated in a police vehicle. Brown attempted to flee, but was ultimately arrested by Knoxville police officers.

"The United States Attorney's Office supports the right of American citizens to gather in peaceful protest," said U.S. Attorney Overbey. "However, we will uphold the rule of law in this community and will take swift action against those who seek to hijack the circumstances surrounding the death of George Floyd to engage in violent criminal activity."

"The FBI's mission is to protect the American people and uphold the Constitution. That includes the rights of individuals to peacefully exercise their First Amendment freedoms. Violence, the threat of violence, and destruction of property jeopardizes the rights and safety of all citizens, including peaceful demonstrators. We will remain steadfast in our mission to protect the American people from those whose
