Creve Coeur pharmacy and owner agree to pay $1,507,808.50 to resolve lawsuit alleging dispensing of controlled substances with no legitimate medical purpose

The United States has reached a civil settlement with Olive Street Pharmacy, LLC (Olive Street) and pharmacy technician Irina Shlafshiteyn (Shlafshiteyn) resolving a civil complaint bringing claims under the False Claims Act (FCA) and Controlled Substances Act (CSA) for damages, statutory penalties, and injunctive relief related to the unlawful dispensing of controlled substances, including controlled substances that were submitted to Medicaid or Medicare for reimbursement. As part of the settlement, Olive Street and Shlafshiteyn agreed to pay $1,507,808.50, an amount that was based in part on their ability to pay.

According to the civil complaint filed by the United States, Olive Street, a retail pharmacy located in Creve Coeur, Missouri, and Shlafshiteyn, its 25 percent owner and managing employee, repeatedly dispensed prescriptions for controlled substances while disregarding warning signs of diversion, or "red flags," indicating the Devin Kelley, 24, Mountain View Road Loudon, was charged with Poss. Of Drug Para., Driving on Revoked/Suspended License, Man/Sell/Del/Resale Sch. VI, and Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. Of Meth.

Officer R. Miller LCPD, was conducting a patrol in the area of Highway 321 and Adesa Blvd in Lenoir City, TN. While in the area Officer observed a silver in color Chrysler 200 that was driven by Devin Kelley of Lenoir City whom Officer knew from prior knowledge was driving on a revoked license status. Officer was confirmed that KELLEY was driving on revoked for DUI. Officer then conducted a traffic stop on the vehicle in the parking lot of the Kings Inn, in Lenoir City.

Upon making contact with the vehicle Officer noticed a strong odor of marijuana coming from inside of the vehicle. KELLEY stated that he may have a gram or two of marijuana somewhere inside of the vehicle. A probable cause search of the vehicle was conducted where Officer located a green bag in the back seat of the vehicle. The contents of the bag revealed, 22.74 grams of a green leafy substance believed to be marijuana, a digital scale, several empty baggies believed to be used to package marijuana for resale, and a marijuana grinder. KELLEY stated the bag and its contents did not belong to him, but stated that the marijuana roaches located in the same bag did belong to him. Also located in the vehicle was a open (100) one-hundred count box of zip lock bags believed to be used for the resale of marijuana, and $464.00 in US Currency located in KELLEY'S wallet. Based on my training and experience the items located inside of KELLEY'S vehicle along with the US Currency showed indicators of the resale of marijuana. KELLEY was arrested and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Wreck

David Hardy, 34, Oostanali Road Loudon, was charged with Prohibited Weapon, DUI, Driving on Suspended/Revoked License, Simple Possession, and Implied Consent.

Dep. L. Hawkins LCSO, was dispatched to Ford road in reference to a wreck with injury. Deputy arrived on scene and spoke with David Hardy, the driver of the 2015 Toyota Camry that had been wrecked. He advised Deputy he was traveling down Ford road when he left the roadway to the right and crashed into the ditch. The odor of an alcoholic beverage was coming from his person, Deputy asked if he had had any alcoholic beverages today and he advised yes. He drank three beers and a shot of liquor. Deputy asked for his consent to preform S.F.S.T. and he denied. He then stated, "Let's just get on with this." Based on my training, experience and observation of Mr. Hardy, Deputy believed him to be under the influence. He was placed into custody and read his Miranda Rights. He agreed to continue to answer questions and Deputy asked him, "Do you think you were too impaired to drive today?" and he responded, "Yes." Deputy read the Blood/Breath Consent Advisement form to Mr. Hardy and he refused to provide a sample. The Loudon County Dispatch advised me Mr. Hardy's Driver License status was Revoked for DUI as well. Mr. Hardy requested me to give his property to his friends on scene, his property was in the pockets of his pants. While retrieving his property, metal knuckles were found in his left pocket. Mr. Hardy confirmed they were his. Dep. B. Pesterfield was conducting a vehicle inventory of his vehicle and 6.9 GM of marijuana was found in the center console. Mr. Hardy confirmed the marijuana was his. While asking Mr. Hardy if the marijuana belonged to him Deputy asked, "Did you smoke any marijuana today?" and he replied, "Yes."

prescriptions were not legitimate. The United States alleged that the types of red flags that Olive Street and Shlafshiteyn ignored included clear instances of tampering with written prescriptions; dangerous combinations of drugs commonly sought after for recreational purposes; and amounts of opioids that exceeded CDC guidance by as much as 17.5 times the recommended maximum daily dosage.

In the complaint, the United States further accused Olive Street of routinely dispensing prescriptions for Subsys, an oral fentanyl spray, which is subject to heightened FDA restrictions and indicated only for opioid-tolerant patients experiencing breakthrough pain due to cancer. The United States contended that Olive Street and Shlafshiteyn knowingly dispensed high dosages of Subsys to patients who did not qualify for the drug, and that the vast majority of the Subsys

Olive Street dispensed was prescribed by Philip Dean, M.D. Dean, a Warrenton, Missouri neurologist, pleaded guilty to illegally distributing prescription opioids in 2018, including to women with whom he had lived and with whom he had had personal relationships.

The United States alleged that even though Shlafshiteyn knew Dean was having intimate relationships with at least one of the women for whom he was prescribing controlled substances, Shlafshiteyn and others at her direction continued to dispense Dean's controlled substance prescriptions to that patient and to other patients of Dean. Further, according to the civil complaint, as the managing employee of Olive Street, Shlafshiteyn had the control and authority to effect compliance with the FCA and CSA.

According to the settlement agreement, effective September 30, 2021, Shlafshiteyn surrendered her Missouri pharmacy technician license and Olive Street terminated its enrollment in the Transmucosal Immediate Release Fentanyl Risk Evaluation and Mitigation Strategy (TIRF REMS) Program, the FDA-mandated program that had allowed Olive Street to dispense immediate-release fentanyl drugs like Subsys. The parties further agreed to enter into a consent decree of permanent injunction prohibiting Shlafshiteyn from participating in the dispensing of controlled substances or being employed by any establishment that does so, prohibiting Olive Street from seeking enrollment in the TIRF REMS Program, and detailing many additional specific parameters limiting the circumstances under which Olive Street is permitted to continue dispensing controlled substances.

Agg. Assault

Walfre Herrera, 26, Hall Street Lenoir City, was charged with Aggravated Assault.

Deputy Harrison LCSO, was dispatched to Hall Street in reference to a physical domestic between two males. While enroute, Loudon County Dispatch advised a females brother and husband had been in an argument and her brother attacked her husband with a machete. Once Deputy arrived on scene, Officer Espinoza and Deputy Mills were speaking with the victim, who had lacerations to both hands. The victims wife, stated that her husband arrived at the residence after getting beer and her brother, Walsre Herrera, came out of the bedroom with a machete and began to swing it at the victim cutting a beer can out of his hand. The two then struggled over the machete at which point Herrera pinned victim to a chair in the living room pressing the machete to his throat stating he was going to kill him. The struggle continued to the front porch of the residence at which time victim told his son to call 911. Herrera then grabbed the machete and threw it in the woods where it was later located. Herrera stated to the female if he got deported back to Guatemala over this that he would kill her daughter when he got back. The argument initially started after Herrera over heard victim stating they were going to kick him out of the residence. Based on the above facts, placed Walfre Herrera in custody for aggravated assault TCA 39-13-102. This did occur in Loudon County, Tennessee.

Horoscopes

instead of overanalyzing everything and becoming paralyzed by the emotions you feel, take decisive action and make mistakes. This is where the lessons come in. Let them teach you what you need to know.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

You're in for some unexpected surprises, but don't worry, because most of them will be exciting and welcome. Prepare yourself by being open and accepting of other people and the new situations they bring. The path of least resistance will take you exactly where you need to go. Move toward people who radiate loving, positive energy.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

You may feel like you're driving on a highway and suddenly all the lanes merge. This bottleneck should cause you tension and difficulty. Your first reaction may be to let all the other people go by. Keep in mind that on a day like this, you'll never get where you need to be unless you're more aggressive.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

You'll be at an advantage if you can learn to distance yourself from the emotional crux of the matter. Maintain a neutral viewpoint. It will be important in order for you to conduct yourself in the way you need to in order to be successful. Great flashes of inspiration result as long as you can keep your mental processes running smoothly.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

You may feel like a mouse trying to get the cheese in the middle of the kitchen floor. From your corner, you can see the cheese in the distance. Yet you know a cat lurks nearby. As soon as you step into the open and out of your protected spot, the cat will react quickly and with great force. You might just want to wait until another day before grabbing the cheese.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Your emotions receive a boost of support from those around you. Be careful that you don't let this energy go to your head. This is a good day to sit back and gain perspective on things instead of assuming you have all the answers. Opportunities will come to you when you join a team of progressive thinkers who aren't afraid to push beyond current boundaries.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Add a bit of spice in your life by engaging in spontaneous activities. It's time to get out and enjoy more of the world. Explore those things that are inherently different from what you'd expect to find. Pick the closed door instead of the open one through which you can see to the other side.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

There may be some emotional strain and tension in your world, but this can be remedied when you look at things in perspective. Don't get weighed down by passing moods that cripple your productivity. Focus on the things that are working well in your life and concentrate your energy on those. Your communication skills and humanitarianism will pull you out of your rut today.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

People may be bearing down hard on you. They will have some facts to back themselves up. Your brain is like a computer storing bits of information to use at times like this. No one is safe against a mental and emotional arsenal like yours. If you've done your homework and prepared well, the challenges should prove to be no problem for you.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

This is a great day for you. You may feel like you can exercise more of your freedom. Break any shackles that seem to be holding you back. There's no reason to feel hindered. Your adventuresome attitude is brave, and there's a great deal of territory to conquer. Get focused and go. You have the green light.

Leo 7/23-8/22

You're in a sticky emotional battle in which someone is trying to twist your words to make you look like the bad guy. As soon as you try to get a project started, someone moves counter to your aims. Perhaps this is all due to a misunderstanding. Take the time to clear the air in all your relationships.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Friendships go surprisingly well for you now, so look to them for the support you seek. Future plans may be uncertain, so don't worry about them now. It's important to bask in each moment and give thanks for every breath. You should feel good, so take aggressive action.
