CDC's National Violent Death Reporting System Helps Tell the Story of Homicides of American Indian and Alaska Native People

A recently published CDC report is helping uncover the characteristics of homicides of American Indian and Alaska Native (AI/AN) people. Analyzed and reported for the first time, data from the National Violent Death Reporting System (NVDRS) show that of the 2,226 AI/AN homicides reported in 34 states and the District of Columbia from 2003-2018:

The rate of homicide was three times higher in AI/AN males than females (12 versus 4 per 100,000)

Approximately half of victims lived (48%) or were killed (53%) in metropolitan areas

A firearm was used in nearly half (48%) of homicides

For female victims, 38% of suspects were current or former intimate partners

"This data comes at a critical time to address an urgent public health problem," said Debra Houry, MD, MPH, Acting Principal Deputy Director of CDC. "Our hope is that this report will help dispel common misperceptions about homicides among American Indian and Alaska Native

Charges

Johnny Bush, 41, Davis Bridge Road Lenoir City, was charged with Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. Of Meth, and Simple Possession.

Deputy D Slemple LCSO, conducted a traffic stop after observing the vehicle cross the fog line and failing to maintain lane of travel. Upon stopping the vehicle, Deputy made contact with the driver. When asked about her driving and what Deputy observed, she said she had just finished work and was tired. Upon further interview and asking for her driver's license, both driver and her front seat passenger Johnny Bush (OFFENDER) both exhibited nervous behavior characterized by fidgeting in their seats, cracking voices with speech, and shaking of their hands. Upon asking driver if there was anything illegal in the vehicle, she stated "not that I know of" then freely admitted to the possibility of some gabapentin pills that may be in an unmarked pill bottle. Due to her reply, Deputy asked if she would consent to search of her vehicle, which she gave freely. Upon search of the vehicle, Deputy located an orange coin purse inside of a nylon bag next to the front passenger seat. Inside the coin purse Deputy found a white crystallized substance consistent with methamphetamine and a green leafy substance consistent with marijuana, both wrapped in separate clear plastic bags. Additionally, Deputy found a yellow glass pipe consistent with use in smoking marijuana with residue in it, and a thin glass pipe with white residue, consistent with the smoking/use of methamphetamine. When asked who the nylon bag belonged to, Mr. Bush freely admitted the bag belonged to him. Due to the totality of circumstances, Mr. Bush was placed under arrest for the possession of methamphetamine and the marijuana. The driver was released to leave the scene. Mr. Bush was transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident.

CDC

persons. Now we must use the data to support effective strategies to prevent homicide deaths among American Indian and Alaska Native persons.”

Additionally, the report found that of the suspects of AI/AN homicide:

Most (80%) were young adult males and 42% were age 18-34 years

Nearly one-third (32%) were AI/AN

Most knew their victims – over 60% of victims knew the suspect in their homicides “Violence is preventable, and data must guide our work,” Christopher M. Jones, PharmD, DrPH, MPH, acting director of CDC’s National Center for Injury Prevention and Control. “To stop violence in American Indian and Alaska Native people and communities before it starts, we need effective solutions that are culturally relevant, incorporate native traditions, and take into account the factors that impact violence for all American Indian and Alaska Native people.”

This report includes many implications for prevention, and efforts to prevent violence within AI/AN communities can have greater impact when they use and adapt approaches and values that are inherent in AI/AN communities. One critical strategy for preventing interpersonal violence is to teach safe and healthy relationship skills through social-emotional learning programs for youth. Programs such as Discovery Dating leverage the unique AI/AN culture and community to shape positive outcomes, and a culturally adapted version of Coaching Boys Into Men builds knowledge and positive attitudes about healthy masculinity, relationships, nonviolent problem solving, and being an active bystand-er. Cultural practices can be interwoven into proven violence prevention programs such as these for AI/AN people regardless of tribal or urban residency.

Missing or Murdered Indigenous People (MMIP) is an issue that has gained national attention in recent years. Homicide was the fifth leading cause of death in 2019 for AI/AN males and the seventh leading cause of death for AI/AN females ages 1–54 years. AI/AN people also have reported high levels of intimate partner violence, including physical or sexual violence, stalking, or psychological harm by a current or former intimate partner or spouse. American Indian and Alaska Native people also experience higher rates of adverse childhood experiences, such as child abuse and neglect and family and community violence, putting AI/AN people at further risk for other forms of violence, such as homicide. The risk factors for violence are compounded by historical (war, loss of land, language, access to traditional ways, and cultural identity), intergenerational (child and elder abuse and neglect), and ongoing (racism and structural inequities) traumas.

To help address the issue of MMIP on a federal level, The Presidential Task Force on Missing external icon and Murdered American Indians and Alaska external iconatives, also known as Operation Lady Justice, was established in 2019 to enhance the operation of the criminal justice system and to address the concerns of AI/AN communities regarding MMIP. In 2020, Savanna’s Act was passed to increase federal governmental agency coordination to reduce violent crimes within tribal lands and against AI/AN people. The Not Invisible Act direct-someone. There may be gossip associated with your relationship that turns you off at first, but don't let that get in the way of expressing your true feelings. Real communication about this partnership will be primarily nonverbal.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Your mind may be in an expansive mode now. Many things should be working for you. Your flexibility and ability to juggle many things at once should make tasks that require these talents a breeze. Unfortunately, they may not help too much when it comes to love and romance. You may not have the communication you desire with a close partner. You could find it easier to communicate with strangers!

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

Don't give up on finding the romantic partner of your dreams, because now is your chance. Talk is spurring you to take action. Don't be surprised if a bit of friction keeps you from jumping into the situation with both feet. Hang in there. Once you get below the surface, you'll find that there's much more to this person than first meets the eye.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Be careful about declaring your love for someone when you haven't spent enough time with him or her to make that call. You may base this impulse on superficial encounters and brief conversations. You may not have the long history or deep discussions needed to know if this person is as ideal for you as you think. Don't be fooled by fast talk and high fashion.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Issues of love and romance may be climactic now. You may be in a relationship phase approaching a major turn in the road. Perhaps there's a sudden breakdown in communication. Perhaps you realize that you rely much more on this person than you first thought. If you aren't intimately involved with someone, you should probably consider this a good situation for now.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

You may be drawn to someone because of the things you share in common. You both appreciate art, music, and romantic dinners, but this person may not be a good permanent mate for you. He or she is unwilling to take the first step, or is indecisive about important issues. If you're uninvolved now, look for someone who challenges your quick wit and isn't afraid to make the first move.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Love and romance are in your favor even though roadblocks may keep you from taking full advantage of the situation. You're being much too picky about the type of person you seek. Love isn't meant to be a set of desired qualities on a shopping list. You can't realistically create a scenario of how things will work out. Let things proceed naturally.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

If things begin to stir, change, or fluctuate in love and romance, your first impulse is to overreact. This is probably the opposite of what you should do. Instead of quickly jumping to conclusions, you should sit back and let things slowly unfold. Resist the urge to make a move today just because your emotions are in an uproar.

Leo 7/23-8/22

When it comes to topics of love and romance, your feelings continue to be intercepted by words and opinions from others. What you want to keep private is suddenly made more public by mouths that just don't stop talking. Relax into the sensual element of love instead of getting caught up in more political aspects of the situation.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Certain areas of your life are expanding rapidly, causing you to lose touch with the more romantic aspects. The more you reach out in one direction, the more deprived you feel in the opposite direction. Perhaps you need more input as to where you put your energy. It's time to focus your attention on things that are working well instead of dwelling on things that are going nowhere.

Libra 9/23-10/22

The time has come for you to take charge in matters of love and romance. This isn't often the case for you who normally like to let others take the lead in this department. A new phase has begun in your love life. You should think about expanding outward into new realms with new people and new circumstances, or both. It's time you were in charge.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

You may be taking a backseat approach when it comes to love and romance. This isn't necessarily a bad thing. In fact, this kind of attitude works to your advantage. By going with the flow and waiting for another to make the first move, you can spend more time on you instead of sending your energy outward toward others.
