Justice Department Announces $139 Million For Law Enforcement Hiring To Advance Community Policing

$375,000 Awarded to a Law Enforcement Agency in the Eastern District of Tennessee

The Department of Justice today announced more than $139 million in grant funding through the department's Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS Office) COPS Hiring Program (CHP). The awards provide direct funding to 183 law enforcement agencies across the nation, allowing those agencies to hire

1,066 additional full-time law enforcement professionals. In the Eastern District of Tennessee, Lenoir City was awarded funding totaling $375,000.

"We are committed to providing police departments with the resources needed to help ensure community safety and build community trust," said Attorney General Merrick B. Garland. "The grants we are announcing today will enable law enforcement agencies across the country to hire more than 1,000 additional officers to support vitally important community oriented policing programs."

"Our office is proud to announce the 2021 Cops Hiring Program Grant award to Lenoir City in the Eastern

Charged

Malinda Carmichael, 27, East Caldwell Ave Knoxville, was charged with Poss. Of Drug Para., and Mfg/Del Sale or Poss. Of Meth.

Kristopher Daniel, 39, Walmart Drive Knoxville, was charged with Mfg/Del Sale or Poss. Of Meth, Poss. Of Drug Para., and Driving on Revoked/Suspended License.

Officer R. Miller LCPD, was conducting a patrol in the area of 911 Highway 321 (WalMart) in Lenoir City, TN. While in the area Officer observed a black in color Dodge Charger with dark window tint to the point that you could not see into the vehicle. Officer conducted a traffic stop on the vehicle where the windows registered at 1%. Upon traffic stop Officer made contact with, Kristopher Daniel, driver and Melinda Carmichael, passenger. Prior to the traffic stop Officer had confirmed that DANIEL'S license status was suspended through the Tennessee Portol when the registration was ran. Officer had DANIEL step out of the vehicle to speak to him about a citation. While speaking with DANIEL he stated that he was currently on probation for a drug paraphernalia charge. Officer then asked if he had anything illegal inside of the vehicle at which time he stated he had some "riggs" that he uses for methamphetamines. DANIELS retrieved the needles and handed them to Officer. DANIEL'S also mentioned prior to searching the vehicle that he had a "friend" who had left a zipper coin bag inside of his vehicle. Prior to the search CARMICHAEL was asked to step out of the vehicle where she had a small zipper coin bag. She handed the bag to Officer J. Ketner, where he located three individual baggies containing a crystal like substance that tested positive for methamphetamines through TRU NARC (11.37 Grams). Also located inside of the zipper coin bag were two empty "dime bags", one matching the rest of the empty un-used "dime baggies" that were located inside of the center console of the vehicle. Inside of the center console were (100) one-hundred un-used "dime bags". Based off of Officer training and experience the un-used new "dime baggies" located inside of the vehicle along with the 11.37 grams of methamphetamines show indicators of the resale of illegal narcotics.

DUI+

Natasha Ramsey, 29, Sunshine Private Lane Vonore, was charged with DUI, Poss. Of Drug Para., and Driving on Roadways Laned for Traffic.

Deputy Harrison LCSO, was dispatched to the area of Highway 72 at the Lutheran Church in reference to a possible intoxicated driver. The initial complainant stated they were observing the vehicle and it was failing to maintain its lane and pulled into the Lutheran Church.

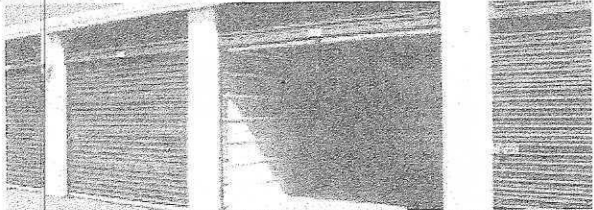

Once on scene, Deputy passed the vehicle leaving the church, at which point Deputy pulled behind the vehicle on Highway 72 and observed it make an abrupt left turn onto Watkins Rd. Deputy conducted a traffic stop on the vehicle on Markwood Rd at Watkins Rd. Upon making contact with the driver, Natasha Ramsey, she exhibited slowed speech, glassy eyes and slow movement. Deputy had the offender exit the vehicle and asked if she would consent to SFSTs to which she did and performed poorly on all tests given (CASE NOTES). While speaking with the offender further she stated she had taken two Gabapentin and there were scales in the glove box of the vehicle. Deputy placed the offender in custody and read her Tennessee Implied consent to which she agreed to a blood draw. During an inventory of the vehicle, Deputy located a scale in the glove box with a white powder residue along with a tear piece of a small baggie on the scale. Deputy transported the offender to Fort Loudon Medical Center where the blood draw took place then to the Loudon County Jail without incident. This did occur in Loudon County, Tennessee.

COPS

District of Tennessee. Applications for this award were received from 590 law enforcement agencies in nearly every state. The funding that Lenoir City will receive will support the hiring of career law enforcement officers to address community policing needs," said Acting United States Attorney Francis M. Hamilton III.

CHP is a competitive award program intended to reduce crime and advance public safety through community policing. CHP provides funds directly to law enforcement agencies to hire new or rehire additional career law enforcement officers, thereby increasing their community policing capacity and crime prevention efforts. Of the 183 agencies awarded grants today, approximately half will use the funding to focus on building legitimacy and trust between law enforcement and communities; 41 agencies will seek to address high rates of gun violence; 21 will focus on other areas of violence; and 19 will focus CHP resources on combating hate and domestic extremism or supporting police-based responses to persons in crisis. The complete list of awards can be found here.

Since its creation in 1994, COPS has invested more than $14 billion to advance community policing, including grants awarded to more than 13,000 state, local and Tribal law enforcement agencies to fund the hiring and redeployment of more than 135,000 officers. CHP, COPS' flagship program, continues to be in demand today: In FY21, COPS received 590 applications requesting nearly 3,000 law enforcement positions. For FY22, President Biden has requested $537 million for CHP, an increase of $300 million.

To learn more about CHP, please visit <https://cops.usdoj.gov/chp-awards>. For additional information about the COPS Office, please visit <https://cops.usdoj.gov/>.

The COPS Office is the federal component of the Department of Justice responsible for advancing community policing nationwide. The only Department of Justice agency with policing in its name, the COPS Office was established in 1994 and has been the cornerstone of the nation's crime fighting strategy with grants, a variety of knowledge resource products, and training and technical assistance. Through the years, the COPS Office has become the go-to organization for law enforcement agencies across the country and continues to listen to the field and provide the resources that are needed to reduce crime and build trust between law enforcement and the communities served.

Agg. Assault

Officer Rayfield LCPD, was flagged down at the Cross Roads Weigles and advised of a Suspicious Vehicle in the Walmart parking lot. Rayfield was informed of a male subject, who appeared to be throwing his hands in the air and yelling loudly to himself in a Gold Buick that was running in the lower Walmart parking lot.

Officers Eldridge and Deland responded to the Walmart parking lot and observed a male subject, sitting in the driver seat of a Gold Buick (DTD564) with the car still running. Upon making contact, the male was identified to be Dustin Shirk, who Officers had prior knowledge of having a revoked license. A records check revealed Shirk to have a revoked license for Failure to comply with financial responsibility on a date of 4/7/14. Shirk almost admitted that he still did not have insurance on the vehicle.

Shirk told Officers that he drove to the Walmart around 7pm and had been staying in the parking lot. Shirk was taken into custody without incident and charged with Driving on a Revoked License and not having insurance on his vehicle. Shirk was transported to Loudon Co jail and the vehicle was impounded at Malones.

Horoscopes

itself vigorously. The people you encounter will be astonished by your power. You could easily seduce the entire world. Try to keep this energy under control. You could be thrown off balance and into a situation you might regret.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

You love to meet new people and talk to them, but you rarely get personally involved. You keep a certain distance between you and the person you're talking to. Today you'll wonder if you're missing out on interesting experiences by controlling your emotions so tightly, or if your defenses are high for a good reason.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

You'll probably feel a little lost today. You'll have to come to a decision in the near future, and your life will be greatly affected by it. Should you listen to your desires? Should they be in charge of your life? Or should you try to rein in your feelings and take the more practical route? It's something to think about.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Today you'll change your approach to relationships. In the past, they were based on feelings, but now you'll decide that they should be more rational. You might feel that this sudden change of attitude could detract from your happiness, but it could also lead to stronger, more stable relationships.

Aries 3/21-4/19

You've decided to let yourself go. You're tired of being a perfectly controlled person. You don't want to restrain your urges anymore! Something in the air is different. You can express your needs freely. Talk to your partner about your desires. Your relationship can only benefit from your current frame of mind.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

The present planetary aspects could change your approach to life. Almost compulsively, you'll need to deepen your relationships with the people you've recently met. You'll probably be attracted to one of them, but be careful, as this person might not feel the same way about you. Look on the bright side. Why would you want to waste your energy on someone who doesn't care about you?

Gemini 5/21-6/20

There might be one aspect of your nature that you ignore. You always need to be the one in charge in a relationship. It would be wise to change this. The planetary configuration can help you do that now. People will be much more receptive to your natural charms if you can change your controlling attitude!

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Don't let your emotions get the better of you today. If you can harness them, you'll have the vital force of ten people. You can be invincible. You can do whatever you feel like doing and no one can stop you. If you share this energy with others, they might end up feeling like you do - the best in your whole life.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Finally, today, you'll know what it feels like to be in charge of things. You'll even feel that you were born to do it. In any case, you'll beautifully coordinate the day. You're the maestro conducting a full orchestra. You'll tell those around you what to do all day long. Isn't it fun to feel such personal power?

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Unlike other occasions, today you'll display your true feelings. Even when you hide them they're still there, deep inside you. You may think that showing your feelings is a sign of weakness, but today you'll show the world that your heart isn't made of stone, and you'll let yourself go.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Your behavior is about to improve your love life. You're no longer hung up about your body. You're no longer distracted by it during passionate moments. You'll focus on and enjoy the here and now, and you won't be lost in your thoughts like usual. You're a new person about to experience the pleasures of life.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

You'll have a lot of stamina in the weeks to come. Your energy will increase, thanks to the prevailing planetary transits. You thrive on your romantic desires and your creativity. You should try to stay in control of situations. Don't let your or anyone else's emotions take over your life.
