The City of Knoxville Receives $200,000 In Federal Funding For Community Policing Development Programs

The City of Knoxville will receive $200,000 from the Department of Justice's Office of Community Oriented Policing (COPS) that will support practices and strategies for creative approaches to preventing crime and de-escalation training, announced Acting United States Attorney Francis M. Hamilton III.

The Department of Justice's Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS Office) has announced over $33 million in funding to advance the practice of community policing in law enforcement. Community Policing Development (CPD) program funds are used to support promising practices through the development and testing of innovative strategies; building knowledge about effective practices and outcomes; and supporting new, creative approaches to preventing crime and promoting safe communities.

Maurice Brown, 21, 12th street Florida, was charged with Theft of Property x2.

Marklyn Forrester, 25, 12 Street Florida, was charged with Aggravated Assault, Theft of Property, and Evading Arrest.

Jahmarley McFarlane, 22, 4th Ave Florida, was charged with Evading Arrest, Reckless Endangerment.

On or about 4/9/21 continuing to 10/22/21 Maurice Brown did commit the offence of Conspiracy to commit Financial Exploitation of Elder person. Brown conspired with others, used deception to obtain unauthorized control over more than $600K of the 76 year old victim. The victim resides in Lenoir City, she was told she had won the Golden Casket Lottery worth over 3.5 million. Victim was instructed to mail or wire money to various locations eventually totaling over $600K. The victim was told she needed to pay $150K, and to make 2 packages with $75K in each one.

Then on 10/22/21 she would meet someone at the Lenoir City Walmart parking lot to transfer the cash packages, by this time the victim realized she was part of a lottery scam. Victim prepared 2 packages but did not put any money in them. Brown flew in from Jamaica on 10/20/21 he drove from Florida to Lenoir City with Marklyn Forrester. A man known as Richard arranged for another person to meet with victim to pick up the package. They were then to meet with Brown and Forrester at the Walmart parking lot to give them one package. Brown admitted him and Forrester surveyed the area around 7:30 am. Brown then phoned the co-conspirators to help arrange the cash pick up. Brown and Forrester parked at the Home Depot parking lot and watched as Jahmarley McFarlane and Jamali Ramsay took 2 packages from the victim. They saw law enforcement pursue McFarlane.

Forrester and Brown then attempted to flee but were apprehended by law enforcement.

LCPD

Dakota Giles, 22, Deck Road Crossville, was charged with Mfg/ Del/Sale or Poss. Of Meth, Driving on Revoked/Suspended License, and Poss. Of Drug Para.

Officer R. Miller LCPD, was conducting a patrol in the area of Highway 321 and Interstate 40 in Lenoir City, TN. While in the area Officer observed a gray in color Ford Ranger disregard the stop sign at Loves Truck Stop where it entered onto Highway 321 failing to yield to the right-away of traffic. Officer conducted a traffic stop on the pickup on the Interstate 40 WB ramp in Lenoir City, where Officer made contact with the driver, Dakota Giles, of Crossville, TN and the passenger, Rachel Garland, of Rockford, TN. Upon his initial approach to the vehicle Officer noticed that GILES appeared extremely nervous, fidgety, and short spoken. While speaking with GILES he stated that he did not have a valid license and stated that he may have a warrant out of Blount County, TN. Officer had GILES step out of the vehicle to speak with him about his license and the possible warrant, during this time dispatch confirmed that GILES had a revoked license. When GILES stepped out of the vehicle Officer noticed several empty "dime bags" and what he believed was a glass pipe used to smoke methamphetamines'. When asked about the paraphernalia, GILES stated that he had some "dope" in a glasses container on the drivers side of the pickup. GILES was detained and GARLAND was asked to step out of the vehicle. Located during a probable cause search of the vehicle was, (3.52 grams) of a crystal like substance that tested positive for methamphetamines through TRUNARC. (1)one bong used to some methamphetamines, (1)one glass pipe used to smoke methamphetamines, (1)one blue glass pipe with marijuana residue and (6)six empty "dime bags". Located in the bed of the pickup was a green zipper pouch that contained (9)nine needles and (2)two cut straws that matched the same straw that was later located in GILES pocket once in custody. Both the bong and glass pipe were located in the passengers side floor board of the vehicle under Garland's feet.

Approximately $13 million will support the creation and delivery of national level de-escalation training efforts, as well as state and local law enforcement agency efforts to build and maintain their officers' de-escalation proficiency.

The funding awarded to the City of Knoxville will help enhance the Knoxville Police Department's capacity to implement, evaluate, and monitor de-escalation techniques. De-escalation techniques have the potential to help prevent the need for use of force in many police and community encounters.

The COPS Office is the federal component of the Department of Justice responsible for advancing community policing nationwide. The only Department of Justice agency with policing in its name, the COPS Office was established in 1994 and has been the cornerstone of the nation's crime fighting strategy with grants, a variety of knowledge resource products and training and technical assistance. Through the years, the COPS Office, has become the go-to organization for law enforcement agencies across the country and continues to listen to the field and provide the resources that are needed to reduce crime and build trust between law enforcement and the communities served. The COPS Office has invested more than $14 billion to advance community policing, including grants awarded to more than 13,000 state, local and tribal law enforcement agencies to fund the hiring and redeployment of more than 134,000 officers. More information on all the awards announced can be found on the COPS Office website at <https://cops.usdoj.gov/cpd-award>.

Charged

Amber Scott, 26, Park Street New Port, KY was charged with Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. Of Meth, Simple Possession, Poss. Of Drug Para., Public Intoxication, Contraband in a Penal Institution, Criminal Impersonation, and Prevention or Obstruction of Service.

Officer R. Miller LCPD, responded to 911 Highway 321 (WalMart) in Lenoir City, TN, in reference to a welfare check on two individuals that were passed out inside of a gray in color Honda Accord. On scene Officer made contact with the vehicle in question, in row 10. While observing the vehicle Officer noticed a male passenger and a female driver slumped over in their seats. Officer spoke with the driver who gave the name of, Dnisha. Driver who appeared lethargic and pale in color stated that they had been in the parking lot for around two hours. While speaking with the driver Officer noticed several needle caps inside of the vehicle, when asked about the needle caps the driver stated that she uses needles to inject methamphetamines.

During investigation with the driver, Officer Ketner, detained the passenger David Messer due to his disruptive and aggressive behavior after locating drug paraphernalia. During the detaining of MESSER, the driver who gave the name of, Dnisha, fled on foot in the WalMart parking lot. Officer followed the female subject on a short foot pursuit where she was taken down to the ground and quickly placed her into custody.

The female subject that gave the name of, Dnisha, was positively identified as Amber Scott of Kentucky. SCOTT was mirandized where she stated that she lied about her name due to warrants. SCOTT also stated that when she arrived at WalMart she used Heroin. While at the jail (1)one baggie of a crystal like substance (1.19 Grams) believed to be methamphetamines along with (1)one baggie of a brown powder like substance (0.96 Grams) believed to be heroin was located inside of SCOTT'S pants by a female Loudon County Jailer. Located in the vehicle during the probable cause search was an empty "dime bag" and a spoon with cotton and residue on it.

Horoscopes

to keep working harder to keep up the pace. This is more the result of low biorhythms than any true assessment of your situation. Today you might have to work a little harder, but you'll get the results you want. Tomorrow will then be easier on you.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Today you might think you look awful and perhaps want to go out and change your whole look. Buy some new clothes and go for a workout. Even though you probably look pretty good, these activities make you feel good and increase your self-confidence. Your self-image is proportionate to your state of mind. You might just feel a bit down now.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Today you might feel unloved even though there's no real reason for it. Your relationships should be pretty strong, but your biorhythms are down so you might be lacking in self-confidence. Phone a close friend and get together. Go shopping or to a movie and raise your spirits. By the end of the day you'll feel like your old self again!

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

Plans to get together with friends tonight could be delayed by responsibilities. It won't stop you but it will mean getting together a little later. Someone close to you might feel a little down and seek a sympathetic ear. Try to get this person to forget his or her insecurities and see the situation as it is.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

You might have to work just a little harder to make money now. This might involve putting in extra time on a task, or it could simply mean that you have to make a few extra trips to the bank. Artistic insights might not be coming as profusely as usual, but this is all right. Relax and let things be, and the ideas will start coming again.

Aries 3/21-4/19

A delay in receiving acknowledgment of some sort could happen today. This might be disappointing, but don't let it get you down. You'll receive it, just maybe not on time!

This isn't a good day to execute any legal contracts or start a vacation. It's a great day to take care of mundane tasks. Get busy!

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Depressing news about the state of the world economy or stock market could have you feeling gloomy and wondering about your financial future. Don't worry. The world economy is in pretty good shape and you should be, too. Equity in property investments could be down, but they should recover shortly. Go with the flow and don't believe everything you read or hear.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

A close friend or romantic partner might not seem communicative today and you might wonder whether this person still cares for you. He or she is experiencing a few difficulties, perhaps involving money, and so isn't particularly good company. Listen if your friend wants to talk, but otherwise just be there. That's what is important anyway.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Do you have a garden or some houseplants that seem a little droopy? Don't worry about whether or not they're all going to die. Revive them! You might feel that some things are more trouble than they're worth. Give yourself space to be gloomy for a while and then perk yourself up. Buy yourself a present.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Today close friends, a love partner, or children may appear to be in a quiet, melancholy mood. You might wonder if you've done something to cause it, but it probably has very little to do with you, if anything. Responsibilities could be weighing on everyone, including you. The only answer is to pitch in and take care of business. Then treat yourselves afterward!

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Home responsibilities may increase markedly today, leaving you feeling like you're the only member of the household getting anything done. You might give in to gloom, but don't dwell on it for too long. You will feel a lot better if you pitch in and take care of whatever needs to be done and then treat yourself by going out to celebrate. Go to a movie, or better yet, a concert.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Hurry up and wait is today's phrase. A visit from a close friend, love partner, or colleague might be delayed, perhaps because of something regarding money or possibly the arts. It keeps you trapped waiting, unable to go anywhere. At times like this, it's best to distract yourself. Find something to do that engrosses you and the time will go by more quickly.
