CDC Updates and Shortens Recommended Isolation and Quarantine Period for General Population

Given what we currently know about COVID-19 and the Omicron variant, CDC is shortening the recommended time for isolation for the public. People with COVID-19 should isolate for 5 days and if they are asymptomatic or their symptoms are resolving (without fever for 24 hours), follow that by 5 days of wearing a mask when around others to minimize the risk of infecting people they encounter. The change is motivated by science demonstrating that the majority of SARS-CoV-2 transmission occurs early in the course of illness, generally in the 1-2 days prior to onset of symptoms and the 2-3 days after.

Additionally, CDC

is updating the recommended quarantine period for anyone in the general public who is exposed to COVID-19. For people who are unvaccinated or are more than six months out from their second mRNA dose (or more than 2 months after the J&J vaccine) and not yet boosted, CDC now recommends quarantine

Fire

Amanda Edwards, 36, Midhurst Drive Knoxville, was charged with DUI, Simple Possession, and Violation of Implied Consent.

Deputy S. Mills LCSO, was advised by Loudon County Dispatch of a possible vehicle fire on Interstate 40 Westbound near the 374 mile-marker. The vehicle was a Toyota sedan bearing Tennessee License plate number DTY032. Upon arrival, Deputy met with a female who was later identified to be Ms. Amanda Edwards. She told Deputy that she was driving her vehicle when it began to overheat. Deputy noticed an odor of marijuana and alcohol emitting from her person. She informed Deputy that she had smoked marijuana about an hour prior and she had a glass of wine as well. Deputy also noticed half a tower of "Xanax" in the door as he was talking to her. A search of her vehicle produced an open container below the driver's seat. The drink was a Clubtails brand "Sex on the Beach" flavored alcoholic beverage. She admitted to drinking half of that beverage.

age. She performed poorly on standardized field sobriety testing. The female also performed poorly on ARIDE. Deputy then placed her under arrest for DUI and Simple Possession. She also refused implied consent while in the rear of his patrol vehicle. The vehicle was towed by MoneyMaker's wrecker service. All of the above occurred in Loudon County, Tennessee.

DUI

Glen Hutchens, 54, Kawga Way Loudon, was charged with Driving Under the Influence.

Officer S. Harrison LPD, observed a gray Honda traveling west on Highway 72, who was having difficulties maintaining it's lane of travel. Officer observed the vehicle cross the center line and the fog line numerous times, and was also swerving within the travel lanes. Upon stopping the vehicle on Carter Street @ Steekee Street, officer immediately detected a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from within the passenger compartment. The driver, identified as Glen Hutchens, seemed disoriented and also had troubles telling him where he lived and where he was headed to. Hutchens advised that he had been drinking "Rum" earlier and that he stopped drinking around 3 or 4 this same morning. Hutchens had a very strong odor of an alcoholic beverage about his person and breath, had slurred speech, bloodshot eyes and was very unsteady on his feet. Hutchens attempted to perform a series of consented sobriety checks, administered by this Officer.

Hutchens performed so poorly that this Officer actually stopped the sobriety checks for fear of possible injury to Hutchens. Hutchens was placed under arrest for DUI and transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident. Once at the jail, Hutchens consented to a breath test to determine the alcoholic content of his blood. 0.277 was the result of this breath test.

CDC

for 5 days followed by strict mask use for an additional 5 days. Alternatively, if a 5-day quarantine is not feasible, it is imperative that an exposed person wear a well-fitting mask at all times when around others for 10 days after exposure. Individuals who have received their booster shot do not need to quarantine following an exposure, but should wear a mask for 10 days after the exposure. For all those exposed, best practice would also include a test for SARS-CoV-2 at day 5 after exposure. If symptoms occur, individuals should immediately quarantine until a negative test confirms symptoms are not attributable to COVID-19.

Isolation relates to behavior after a confirmed infection. Isolation for 5 days followed by wearing a well-fitting mask will minimize the risk of spreading the virus to others. Quarantine tact with someone known to have COVID-19. Both updates come as the Omicron variant continues to spread throughout the U.S. and reflects the current science on when and for how long a person is maximally infectious. These recommendations do not supersede state, local, tribal, or territorial laws, rules, and regulations, nor do they apply to healthcare workers for whom CDC has updated guidance.

Data from South Africa and the United Kingdom demonstrate that vaccine effectiveness against infection for two doses of an mRNA vaccine is approximately 35%. A COVID-19 vaccine booster dose restores vaccine effectiveness against infection to 75%. COVID-19 vaccination decreases the risk of severe disease, hospitalization, and death from COVID-19. CDC strongly encourages COVID-19 vaccination for everyone 5 and older and boosters for everyone 18 and older. Vaccination is the best way to protect yourself and reduce the impact of COVID-19 on our communities.

The following is attributable to CDC Director, Dr. Rochelle Walensky:

"The Omicron variant is spreading quickly and has the potential to impact all facets of our society. CDC's updated recommendations for isolation and quarantine balance what we know about the spread of the virus and the protection provided by vaccination and booster doses. These updates ensure people can safely continue their daily lives. Prevention is our best option: get vaccinated, get boosted, wear a mask in public indoor settings in areas of substantial and high community transmission, and take a test before you gather."

Horoscopes

could be very much on your mind today, Capricorn. You may feel like Atlas, carrying the world on your shoulders! You're tired. Perhaps you need to reevaluate your commitments - your innate kindness may have caused you to make too many. Fulfill the ones you have, but think twice before making any new ones. You're important too, after all.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

You may have your ups and downs today, Aquarius. You could get at least one phone call of the "good news, bad news" variety, and this could have your moods swinging back and forth like a pendulum. Try to stay centered. Take the good news as encouragement, and as for the bad news, try to consider it objectively and figure out ways to turn it to your advantage. There's always a way. Hang in there!

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Normally you tend to be a very spiritually oriented person, Pisces, but today you might find metaphysical concepts of all kinds rather baffling. Whether these are ideas you've embraced for a long time or new ones you've just discovered, you may find nagging little doubts creeping in, temporarily causing your faith to waver. This is a healthy development, however. A little doubt now and then can weed out concepts that don't work for you and reaffirm your belief in others.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Today you might learn something about a friend that could be rather disconcerting, Aries. There could be a dark side to this person that you weren't previously aware of, and this could cause you to want to withdraw for a while and reevaluate your involvement with this individual. When considering it, remember that we all have our dark sides. Could what you've discovered simply be this factor, or does this go too far beyond it for you? Think about it! Taurus 4/20-5/20

Outside responsibilities might temporarily interfere with your love life, Taurus. You may feel a strong desire to get together with a love partner early in the evening, but circumstances may necessitate your working odd hours. This can be frustrating, as you've been looking forward to this for a long time, but you could meet your friend later in the evening. Don't be afraid to ask. Most people understand when situations like this crop up.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Today you're likely to find your routine too boring for words, Gemini, and may have a sudden powerful urge to cut loose and play some serious hooky. Still, you may feel the pull of obligation. This conflicted feeling should pass. If it persists beyond today, however, you might need to reevaluate certain areas of your life. There are lots of opportunities out there, and life is too short to be stuck in a situation that doesn't allow you to grow.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

You could be feeling especially sensual and passionate today, Cancer, and you'll want to get together with a love interest. However, other responsibilities could get in your way. This could provide you with the perfect excuse to sink into gloom, but don't fall into this trap. Get whatever business you're facing handled and out of the way. Or perhaps you can arrange to finish it tomorrow. Then set up that hot date!

Leo 7/23-8/22

You may feel a bit of disappointment today, Leo. You might tend to view whatever snags you've hit on the path to accomplishing your goals as personal failures, and if you let it, this idea could persist with you throughout the day. Try to remain objective, and don't lose sight of the big picture. You haven't even lost a battle - at worst, it's a minor conflict! Chances are that if you continue working hard you'll still win the war!

Virgo 8/23-9/22

A rather disheartening phone call could come to you today, Virgo. This might bring news of a setback in one of your projects that is only temporary but nonetheless frustrating. You'll probably have to deal with some trivial little details you'd rather not bother with, and this could take up too much valuable time. Hang in there - you're still doing well! Don't let your frustrations get the best of you.

Libra 9/23-10/22

After the rush of energy over the past few days, Libra, today you may feel a powerful letdown. Not every day can be filled with adventure and excitement. For now, you just need to take care of the routine matters that are a byproduct of life on Earth. However, keep in mind that there are many weekends coming up, and with the right kind of planning you can get excitement back into your life.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

A goal that you've been trying to reach may be temporarily stalled, Scorpio, and you could be tempted to slip into despair, wondering if it will ever really happen. Remember that the keyword for today is "temporary." Whatever obstacles are in your way will eventually be overcome and your goal should be to continue to advance in the direction you want. In the meantime, take care of your chores. They may be boring, but they're necessary!

Sagittarius

11/22-12/21

Today you might realize that you need to make a certain purchase, Sagittarius. Perhaps your home or car requires some important repairs, or maybe some new equipment is necessary for your work. This could prove rather disheartening, as it might involve spending money that you'd rather use for something more exciting. Think of the trouble this expenditure should save you, however, and you'll see the value of it all.

Obituaries

Sheryl A. Shoemaker, age 77, of Loudon, TN passed away at her home on Friday, December 24, 2021. She is survived by her husband, Terry L. Shoemaker of Loudon, TN; son, Jerry E. (Kerri) Shoemaker of Springville, AL; sister Connie (Ben) Wallenhorst; and nephews and nieces. While we who remain mourn her passing, we celebrate a life well-lived and full of love. Born in Bluffton, OH, on March 6, 1944, she attended Elida High School. While there, she met a fellow student from a rival high school who became her life-long love. After high school, they married and celebrated 57 wonderful years together. Living most of her life in Ohio surrounded by family and friends, she and her husband decided to retire to the Smoky Mountains of TN to enjoy a change of scenery from the flat lands to mountains. She had many varied interests that she partook in with passion. After her son bought a baby parrot, she fell in love with exotic birds and enjoyed raising many more from hatchlings. She ran a business that bred and catered to exotic birds while living in Ohio. After retirement, she kept several of the parrots that she thought of as "her babies". She was an avid seamstress who could sew anything from wedding dresses to high school band uniforms. After retirement, she enjoyed being a part of the quilting guild in her community. She made many beautiful quilts that were given to charity organizations by the guild, and many more that were enjoyed by her family and friends. She also loved Corvettes, and was an active member of the Corvette Club for many years in both Lima, OH and Loudon, TN as she and Terry shared a love of Corvettes with others. She was a sweet, caring person who was loved and will be missed by all who knew her. Sheryl was preceded in death by her father, Ray E. Blosser; her mother, Alma F. Blosser; and her sister, Nancy Kirchoffer. A private memorial service was held in Loudon, TN, of arrangements.
