Comptroller's Office Investigates Financial Problems Within City of Jackson

Investigation focused on transactions with Jackson Generals and solid waste contract

The Tennessee Comptroller's Office has released a comprehensive investigation that examines numerous transactions between the City of Jackson and its Minor League Baseball team – the Jackson Generals. The investigation also revealed numerous issues involving the city's solid waste contract with Waste Management, Inc. of Tennessee.

The investigation began after current city officials reported questionable transactions that occurred during the tenure of the former Mayor and his administration. The Office of the District Attorney General of the 26th Judicial District presented this investigation to the Madison County Grand Jury on February 1, 2021. The Grand Jury elected not to take any action.

Richard Wilson, 45, Pond Creek Road Philadelphia, was charged with Resisting Arrest, DUI, Driving on Revoked/Suspended License, and Evading Arrest. Deputy W. Jenkins LCSO, was driving on Pond Creek Rd when he observed a white Honda pull out of Pond Creek Road and start driving towards him with no headlights on while it was dark outside. As the vehicle passed him Deputy identified the driver as Richard Wilson, offender, of the same address. Deputy knew from previous law enforcement encounters with the offender that he has a suspended license. Dispatch confirmed that the offenders license is suspended. Deputy turned around on the car and turned on his emergency lights to signal the offender to stop. The offender pulled over for a short period of time on McCrary Street before running the stop sign and recklessly doing a U-turn to flee back towards his residence on Pond Creek Rd. From McCrary Street to the residence Deputy had both his lights and siren activated and the offender did not stop until they reached his residence. When the offender stopped the vehicle he exited and began running on foot to elude Deputy. Deputy gave chase on foot for multiple laps around the residence while giving lawful commands to stop running and to show me his hands. Due to the offender continuing flight, not showing Deputy his hands, and Deputy not knowing if he had weapons, Deputy tased the subject to bring the dangerous, rapidly unfolding, and uncertain situation to an end. The taser was successful in bringing the offender to the ground but he continued to refuse lawful orders to place his hand behind his back. After a second cycle of tas-

Club in June 2011 without any discussion of a significant change in the lease. This change obliged the city, at the club's request, to reimburse the club for stadium services expenses including field preparation, field maintenance, and pre-stadium event preparation. Neither the former Mayor, former City Recorder, nor City Attorney informed the City Council of this materially significant change in the lease agreement at the time of the council's approval.

The day after the amended lease agreement was approved, the former Mayor signed a letter on the city's behalf assuming $500,000 annually to pay the stadium services expenses. The former Mayor did not present the letter to the City Council for its review and approval.

Although the City Council approved the annual budget and corresponding payments to the club through the city's budgetary process, some of the payments to the club were misclassified to accounts other than the "Jackson Ballpark" specific account. Council Members told investigators they were unaware of the "true financial picture" the city provided to the club over the years due to these and other non-transparent techniques.

Additionally, the former City Recorder approved questionable payments of at least $526,642.59 for goods and services that the club received from vendors through trade (bartered type) transactions. Essentially, the club was paid twice: 1) once when the club received a good or service from a vendor during a trade deal; and 2) when the club presented an invoice to the city and received a reimbursement payment.

Beginning with the amended lease approval in June 2011, the city's payments to the baseball club grew substantially. For example, in FY 2010 the City provided $352,215 in payments to the club. In FY 2019, the City provided $1,105,168 in payments to the club. There was a general lack of transparency during this period.

er the subject placed his hands behind his back. By this time Deputy Curtis arrived on scene and placed the offender into cuffs and read the him his Miranda warning. The taser probes were removed from the offender and he advised them he had no injuries. The offender was transported to jail. Once at the jail the offender informed Deputy that he had taken multiple medications during the day including Adderall approximately 2 hours prior. Deputy could also smell the odor of alcohol emitting from the offenders mouth. Due to the multiple indicators of impairment Deputy observed Deputy asked the offender to perform standardized field sobriety testing to which he consented. The offender performed poorly on the tests. Deputy then read the offender implied consent to which he agreed. The offender was transported to the hospital where a blood draw was performed before being transported back to the jail. The registration on the vehicle was expired and the offender could not provide Deputy with proof of insurance. This did happen in Loudon County Tn.

they care about you. Don't try and understand the unexpected nature of the wonderful vibe around you. Just live life to the fullest today. Good things don't always last forever.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Certain people close to you are very demanding today. They may ask you to deal with thankless tasks that use up your precious energy. Avoid spreading yourself too thin if you want to reach your goals. Usually you aren't afraid of anything. Nothing can get in your way. From now on, take the time to think about things before you act, Pisces. That way, your dreams will come true more quickly.

Aries 3/21-4/19

You and your friends may have been planning a party for some time. Now you realize it's entirely up to you to actually make things happen, Aries. It seems that if you're going to get anywhere, you need to take charge and delegate responsibility. You like to be in this position. Your great creative mind could give you a load of ideas for a party that no one will forget.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Luck is finally on your side, Taurus. And you deserve it, because you really worked hard to get these results in your life. In astrology, as in life, you can't succeed just by sheer luck. Success is often the result of a lot of energy you expend or something you may have changed on the inside. So continue to give off the positive energy that's responsible for your success.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

The stars are pushing you to accept more responsibility in your life. In fact, you may not think you can do it, but everything will work out just fine. At the moment, you seem to have a special gift for leading other people, making decisions, and doing whatever is necessary to finish up group projects. It's too bad - you really underestimate yourself!

Cancer 6/21-7/22

You seem to have the bad habit of putting off until tomorrow what you can do today, Cancer, especially those little daily things that seem to pile up, like writing letters, paying bills, getting a health checkup, or cleaning the house. However, today is a great day to deal with these monotonous tasks, so seize the moment.

Leo 7/23-8/22

When you least expect it, success comes into your life. You can say goodbye to the dreariness of daily routine, fears, and changing moods. You're now entering a period of wonderful good luck and success. All this comes despite the fact that sometimes you might lack confidence in yourself. That doesn't matter anymore, because success is on your side from now on.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Life just seems to be smiling on you at the moment, Virgo. Some sort of mystical force has entered your life and is enriching your contact and with other people. It allows you to make a success of anything you undertake. Luck is really on your side, and you're on cloud nine. Have you made friends with the angels up there yet?

Libra 9/23-10/22

At the moment, Libra, the planets are aligned in a way that encourages communication and the written word. Therefore, you may feel like taking the plunge and writing that book you've been thinking about for a long time. It will probably be a great success. You're very gifted when it comes to this kind of creative activity. Go for it and stop making excuses!

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

For a while now, you've wanted to change something about your lifestyle or behavior toward the people you love, Scorpio. You want your life to go in a new direction, but you don't want to upset the people around you. Maybe your friends and family want the same thing for you. Do away with your preconceived notions about things and let yourself go with this idea.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

The period just ahead of you promises a lot of luck and success. The initiatives you will take in your career or personal life will come off without a hitch. You should think about trying some kind of new activity on a professional level. Take advantage of all the good luck in the air. Don't be afraid to burn the candle at both ends now and live life to the fullest.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

After a recent financial problem, you've decided to take the bull by the horns and do what you need to do. You're used to being in control of a situation, and small financial worries aren't going to get you down. After all, money isn't everything. On top of your ability to react to a problem, your originality and self-sacrificing attitude will help you deal with this situation.
