Spending by Former City of Kingston Parks and Rec Director Questioned

An investigation by the Tennessee Comptroller's Office details multiple questionable transactions and instances of spending by the former Parks and Recreation Director for the City of Kingston in Roane County.

Investigators determined the former director utilized three bank accounts for fees, sponsorships, and donations. These accounts were not maintained or authorized by city officials. From July 2016 through January 2019, the former director had sole control of the three accounts and a debit card tied to these accounts.

The investigation revealed the former director made personal, questionable, and undocumented purchases totaling at least $19,388.

Some of the questionable purchases included charges at grocery stores, sporting goods stores, a tobacco store, and other retailers paid without detailed invoices to document that the door and responded and despite threats of violence with the gun and finding the gun in the mans car and the man being intoxicated he still only received a public intoxication charge and according to the report wasnt even cited for the gun or threats. It further doesn't state if the gun was even taken while the man was intoxicated.

Jack Smith, 68, College Street Loudon, was charged with Public Intoxication.

Officer Clemmer LPD, was dispatched to Hackberry Street at the Carmichael Inn for a suspicious person who was threatening to shoot the owner. Officer arrived on scene and spoke with the owner of the Carmichael Inn and he stated to Officer that a gentleman came into the bar area drunk making a scene and told the owner that he wanted hush puppies.

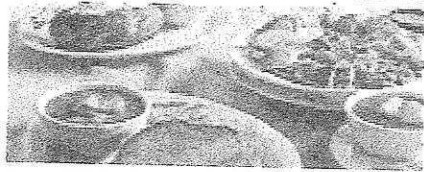

Owner told the subject that the kitchen is closed and that they were getting ready to close the bar area also and the subject refused to leave and was demanding the owner to make him some hush puppies and the owner asked the subject to leave and the subject stated he was going outside that he wasn't going to fight him but he will shoot him.

Officer then made contact with the subject Jack Smith and as he was making contact Mr. Smith could barely stay on his feet and had a very strong odor of an alcoholic beverage omitting from his persons. Officer placed Mr. Smith in the back of his patrol vehicle and searched his vehicle and found a 9mm pistol in the passenger seat.

Mr. Jack Smith was placed under arrest for public intoxication. The above actions did occur in the city of Loudon.

Victor Shofner, 31, Maple Lane Loudon, was charged with Aggravated Assault x2.

Deputy C. Lane LCSO, was dispatched to Stevens lane at approximately 0505 hours, in reference to a possible stabbing. Dispatch advised prior to Deputy arrival that the offender Victor Shofner had left the scene. Upon arrival Deputy observed the victim sitting in the living room with a stab wound to the upper left back. The victim stated they got into a argument with the offender Victor Shofner when he stabbed him in the back. The victim also stated that 2 females left the scene and went to Crooked Oaks with Victor Shofner. Deputy C. Rodgers and Dep. C. Gray made contact with the offender and the other two females at the residence on Crooked Oaks. All were brought in for questioning. Detective Charlie Cosner was advised and the incident was turned over to him.

After an investigation Victor Shofner was charged.

goods and/or services benefited the Parks and Recreation Department.

The amount also includes personal purchases from Amazon and a fishing store; gift cards purchased with city funds; checks issued directly to the former director; and cash withheld from deposits.

The former director told investigators that these purchases and transactions were legitimate; however, he could not provide any documentation to support those claims.

The former Parks and Recreation Department Director resigned from his position in January 2019.

The results of the investigation have been communicated with the District Attorney General of the 9th Judicial District.

"The former director's use of three bank accounts outside of the city's control allowed him to bypass the city's budgetary and purchasing procedures," said Comptroller Jason Mumpower. "The city should ensure its internal controls are strong enough to prevent misappropriation. Needless to say, we recommend these three accounts be closed immediately."

Haywood County Audit Findings Go Uncorrected

Majority of findings related to financial management

More than half of the audit findings in Haywood County's audit report for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2020 were also noted in last year's report and had not been corrected.

The Tennessee Comptroller's Office has released its annual audit of Haywood County which contains nine total findings. Five of the nine findings are repeated from last year's report, and all nine findings are attributed to the Office of County Mayor.

The audit findings detail weaknesses, deficiencies, or areas of noncompliance within the county mayor's office operations.

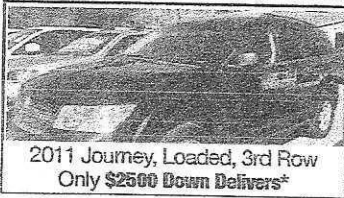

The five repeated findings include the Solid Waste Disposal Fund's deficit in unrestricted net position; deficiencies in budget operations; accounting deficiencies; an interfund loan that was not authorized in accordance with state statute; and a failure by county officials to adequately control access to the courthouse offices.

Other issues noted in the report include a failure to properly prepare year-end financial statements; funds transferred without county commission approval; deficits in unassigned fund balances in the Community Development/Industrial Park and Education Capital Projects funds; and deficiencies in purchasing procedures.

"The results of this audit represent two troubling trends in Haywood County," said Comptroller Jason Mumpower. "Not only are audit findings going uncorrected from year to year, but this is the most audit findings that Haywood County has received in the last four years. I encourage county leaders to follow our recommendations and implement corrective action to address these problems."

DUI

Jennifer Vineyard, 44, Avery Circle Lenoir City, was charged with DUI, Violation of Implied Consent, and Driving on Roadways Laned for Traffic.

Corporal Z. Frye LCSO, observed a silver sedan traveling in the center of the roadway on Hwy 11 near Lee Hi Street. Once behind the vehicle, Deputy observed it to cross the yellow center line and travel into the oncoming lane of traffic. Upon traffic stop at Hwy 11 and Old Midway Road, Deputy made contact with the driver, Jennifer Vineyard. Vineyard had slurred speech when speaking and very lethargic when asked to do simple tasks. Vineyard consented to S.F.S.T.

and performed poorly on all tests given. Vineyard stated she had left Aubreys in Lenoir City and was going home to Avery Circle. Vineyard stated she had a "few drinks" while at Aubrey's but was unable to give an exact amount. Based on the totality of the circumstances, Vineyard was placed under arrest for Driving Under the Influence and cited for Roadways Laned for Traffic. Vineyard was read the TN Implied Consent Advisement and refused to provide a sample. Vineyard was transported to the Loudon County Jail.

alternatives. Things will only fester under these conditions. Face whatever it is that's upsetting you so you can begin to work things out.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Watch out for the green-eyed monster today, Aries. It can rear up before you can say "jealousy." Most situations that cause these feelings are born out of insecurity. If you aren't secure in your job, relationship, or family, and feel threatened by someone, it's time to take a look at the cause. Why you don't feel as solid as you could? What's causing the insecurity? Look for the answers.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

You may feel insecure about your appearance today, Taurus. This can be a vicious cycle to get into. The result is almost always negative. Rather than pick yourself apart, consider finding ways to accept your looks. Whether it's your weight or age or anything else, if you can't accept yourself, you will always find something wrong no matter how many changes you make.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Jealousy might rear its head today, Gemini. The key to it all is to understand where and why you feel insecure. If you're jealous of a mate, what's going on in the relationship? Is trust an issue? If this comes up at work, is it because you don't feel recognized for your contributions? Examine the cause of jealousy. It's almost always a symptom of a deeper problem.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Arts and crafts may interest you today, Cancer. Even if you lean more toward sports, an artistic streak will likely run pretty strong in you. The process of creating can be richly satisfying, both in the process and in the satisfaction of a finished product. Allow yourself the opportunity to explore this, as the day's energy will lend much to your abilities.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Getting along with others may prove challenging today, Leo. The influence from the planetary aspects can have you preferring to withdraw and isolate. You might feel impatient and annoyed. If so, and being alone is an option, go for it. If it isn't, you will need to curb the tendency to be argumentative or confrontational. Exercise patience and avoid conflict.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Don't be surprised if you're a little weepy today, Virgo. The influence from planets can enhance your sensitivity to almost everything, including your own feelings. Take heart. It's bound to be short-lived. Cry if you need to, since it can be cleansing. Try not to wallow too much. Chances are good that things will look better tomorrow. Take care of yourself today.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Fanaticism or obsessive thinking may be something you need to look at today, Libra. Common areas for such behaviors are in the pursuit of money, power, success, and romance. There's a fine line between ambition and obsession. If you find that you think of nothing else but one fixation, it may be time to talk with someone about it. He or she may see what you don't want to see.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Don't act impulsively today, Scorpio. It could be easy to confuse this with spontaneity. One has more thought put into it than the other. With this day's influence, be certain to look before you leap. Think everything through, from decisions to projects to contracts. Read the fine print more than once. When it comes to relationships, be careful not to trust too quickly.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Is it time to take a more drastic approach to a problem, Sagittarius? If you've made several attempts to resolve your trouble but to no avail, you might consider it. As long as "drastic" doesn't mean "destructive," you may find success trying something far more forward and insistent. Be careful, however. Think things through carefully first. Run any ideas you have past a trusted friend.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Tap into your creativity to unblock the emotional flow today, Capricorn. This can be a powerful tool. Creativity is a big part of who you are, almost as big as communication. Your emotions link to these two aspects and constantly interact beneath the surface. If one gets blocked, release it by focusing on the other. Express yourself through creativity and consider talking to someone close.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

You may need to deal with someone's disapproval today, Aquarius. This will likely come from someone you see as either a superior or authority figure, perhaps a parent. While it's important to listen to this person, if what they say involves your job, personal life, or how you choose to live, it's no one's concern but yours. No matter how you do things, someone will disapprove somewhere.
