Investigation Reveals Theft Within Knox County General Sessions Court Clerk's Office

Former deputy clerk stole more than $6,500

The Tennessee Comptroller's Office has completed an investigation resulting in the indictment of Steven Harmon, a former deputy clerk within the Knox County General Sessions Court Clerk's Office.

Comptroller investigators, working in cooperation with the clerk's office, determined that Harmon stole at least $6,577 between January 11, 2019 and October 22, 2019.

Harmon's job responsibilities included collecting court costs, fines, and other fees assessed by the General Sessions Court. Investigators determined Harmon stole some of the money that he received.

Harmon's primary scheme involved voiding cash payments that he received, and then re-receipting the cash payment for a lesser amount. For example, on October 9, 2019 he received $620 cash from a defendant. Harmon then voided that amount in the office's software system, and

Reckless

Tyson Vinyard, 43, Fawnwood Way Lenoir City, was charged with DUI, Reckless Driving and Evading.

Deputy L. Hawkins

LCSO, was traveling East-bound on East Coast Tellico Parkway at Morganton Cemetery Road when a 1993 White Ford Mustang passed him going West-bound, it was across the white fog line.

Deputy then turned around to attempt to catch up to the vehicle and it was out of his visual. Deputy then had visual on East Coast Tellico Parkway at Jackson Ferry Road, Deputy activated his emergency equipment to attempt a traffic stop. The vehicle continued to accelerate, it failed to stop and Deputy pursued. At that time the vehicle was driving in the wrong lane of travel, then turned onto National Campground Road at speeds of 80MPH crossing into the other lane of travel multiple times. They reached Highway 95 and the vehicle turned left, spinning the tires and turning it sideways. Deputy pursued until the vehicle came to a stop at Farnwood Way. The driver, Tyson Vinard, was taken into custody and the passenger, was detained. Deputy then spoke with Mr. Tyson who advised he did cross the white fog line when Deputy turned around on him. Deputy asked him why he failed to stop and he stated, "I thought you were a guy from Madisonville trying to follow me."

Deputy could smell the odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his person, his speech was slurred and his eyes were bloodshot/glossy. He advised he had 1/2 of a glass of wine at 7:00PM. He consented to S.F.S.T. and it was unsatisfactory.

He also consented to give blood for chemical testing. On the way to Fort Loudoun Medical

Meth

Katie Neipp, 30 Oliver Drive Oliver Springs, was charged with DUI, Violation of Implied Consent, Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. of Meth, and Driving on Roadways Laned for Traffic.

Corporal Z. Frye LCSO, observed a grey Cadillac failing to maintain its lane of travel Northbound on I-75. Upon traffic stop Cpl. made contact with the driver, Katie Neipp. Neipp appeared very lethargic and had trouble answering questions. Neipp stated she uses Suboxone daily and had last used earlier on this date. Neipp consented to S.F.S.T and performed poorly on all tests. Neipp was read the TN Implied Consent Advice-ment and did not consent to provide a sample.

Neipp was placed under arrest for Driving Under the Influence. Prior to entering the Loudon County Jail, Neipp advised Deputy that she had contraband on her person and she believed it to be Methamphetamine. Once inside the jail, female corrections officers retrieved the contraband and it was confirmed to be Methamphetamine weighing 6.78 grams. She was charged with possession of SCH

II narcotics as well. This all did occur in Loudon County, TN.

re-entered the transaction showing that he had only collected $489 from the defendant. Harmon kept the $131 difference.

Harmon made at least 120 false entries in the office's accounting records to facilitate or conceal his theft.

Harmon was placed on administrative leave with pay on October 31, 2019 and subsequently placed on leave without pay effective February 1, 2020. His employment was terminated on November 24, 2020.

On February 4, 2021, Steven Harmon pled guilty to theft over $1,000. As part of the plea arrangement, he will also pay $6,578.40 in restitution.

"Careful review and attention must be given before any transaction is voided," said Comptroller Jason Mumpower. "While voided transactions can be legitimate, they are sometimes used to conceal misappropriation. In this case, supervisors relied on the deputy clerk's assurance that each void was necessary to correct an error."

Former Bean Station Police Chief Pleads Guilty to Theft

An investigation by the Tennessee Comptroller's Office, working in conjunction with the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation, has resulted in a guilty plea by former Bean Station Police Chief Stephen Kitts.

Investigators determined that Kitts stole at least $1,830 from the police department's special revenue drug fund between November 1, 2018 and January 31, 2020.

The investigation revealed that Kitts used confidential drug funds to pay personal bills. Kitts falsified police department forms to indicate the money was spent on confidential drug buys that never happened. Kitts admitted his theft and the concealment of his actions to investigators.

The money in Bean Station's special revenue drug fund may only be used for drug treatment programs, local drug education programs, local drug enforcement programs, and nonrecurring general law enforcement expenditures.

On February 11, 2020, Kitts resigned as police chief. He also reimbursed the Town of Bean Station for $1,830.

On January 20, 2021, Stephen Dale Kitts pled guilty in Grainger County Criminal Court to theft over $1,000.

"There are specific procedures that all county and municipal governments with drug funds must follow," said Comptroller Jason Mumpower. "In this case, the police department failed to document payments to confidential informants, maintain adequate transaction logs, maintain proper confidential informant files, and deposit seized funds within three days of seizure."

Agg. Assault

Joe Rolen, 57, Old Bailey Road Lenoir City, was charged with Aggravated Assault.

Deputy Pesterfield LCSO, responded to Old Bailey Rd. Lenoir City for a domestic disturbance. Upon arrival, Deputy spoke with the complainant/victim who showed Deputy a video of the offender Joe Rolen and her arguing in the front yard of the residence. The victim was standing near the roadway when the offender ran at her with a dark-colored ax pulled back as if he was going to swing it at her. The victim screamed for her nephew to come help her, and the offender lowered the ax and went back into the residence. The victim stated she was in fear of the offender, striking her with the weapon. The victim is the offenders sister. Deputy was unable to make contact with the offender at the time of the assault. Deputy is charging the offender with aggravated assault. All the above actions did occur in Loudon County, TN.

Deputy Clay Jenkins LCSO, made contact with offender Joe Rollen due to prior knowledge of Mr. Rollen having an active warrant out of Loudon County. He was then taken into custody and transported to the Loudon County Jail. All of this did occur in Loudon County, TN.

Horoscopes

of entertainment that you really enjoy. There might be a slight delay in getting there, Aquarius, but don't panic. You should arrive eventually. Pisces 2/19-3/20

This is a good day to spend some time alone, Pisces. You may have projects you want to finish, and you have the energy to get a lot done. You could feel restless, but socializing might not be a good idea. Tempers may be short and frustrations high among those in your social circle. Quarrels might break out. Get out on your own, then work on whatever you want. This way you will enjoy your day. Aries 3/21-4/19

Discussions in a group you're affiliated with could get heated as disagreements escalate. A goal you've been working toward might finally near fulfillment, Aries, and tempers are short. You may avoid arguments, but the situation could still make you uncomfortable. You might decide to leave early and go for a workout or walk. This is a good idea. You will want to work off the frustration. Taurus 4/20-5/20

Today you could put a lot of energy into mundane chores and tasks, as you won't want them hanging over your head and interfering with your evening plans. As a result, Taurus, you might feel very stressed and your temper could be a bit short. Try to control it and avoid taking your frustrations out on others. Remember, you will have to face these people again. Gemini 5/21-6/20

You might be planning or leaving on a much-needed vacation now, and feeling very excited about it. Plans should go smoothly, Gemini, so you're apt to get everything together with few glitches. Friends in distant places might ask you to visit or be planning visits of their own. The focus today is on expansion of your physical and mental horizons. Go for it, have fun, and take notes. Cancer 6/21-7/22

Ambitious plans for your future could necessitate your giving a lot of attention to practical matters, such as finances. This could be a drag, Cancer, but if you're serious about your ideas, it needs to be done. A friend, probably a man, could pitch in and help you make sense of everything. Don't try to get it all done today. Your mind could get overloaded, which might discourage you. Take it slowly. Leo 7/23-8/22

The coming days promise a busy social time, Leo. You might host a party at your home. You may feel terribly rushed and wonder if you will be able to get everything done.

Don't worry. It will all come out all right. Friends or family members could prove invaluable in lending assistance. At some point, you might attend or take part in a sports event. Virgo 8/23-9/22

Your energy level should be high today, Virgo, so you're going to feel restless and spend most of your time out and about. There might be some chores you need to get done at home, but family members should help and you're apt to finish them all quickly. Paperwork might need to be completed, which could be the slowest of all your tasks. Don't get frustrated. Handle it and then have fun this evening. Libra 9/23-10/22

You may be looking forward to an evening with close friends, Libra, probably including a romantic partner. Occasions such as sporting events, movies, or concerts could be on your agenda. Activities involving children are also possible. Don't be surprised if you're inclined to sit quietly and let others do the talking. You might have a lot on your mind and need to let it stew for a while. Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Members of your household may feel a bit restless today, and therefore might spend most of their time out and about. You might take advantage of everyone's absence to catch up on work you need to do alone, Scorpio. This is going to be a busy day with lots of outside contact. Visitors might drop by and the phone could ring constantly. Don't be surprised if you don't get much done. Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Your neighborhood is likely buzzing with activity today, Sagittarius. New neighbors could move in, improvements could be made, and new businesses could open their doors. Expect a lot of visitors and calls. A man with a child could play a big role in these events. At some point you might decide to walk down the street and check out what's happening. What you hear from others may not be accurate. Capricorn 12/22-01/19

The promise of possible financial advancement could cause you to plunge into a lot of paperwork today. This could be related to a job, Capricorn, or it might involve a personal project that you've been working on. You might get so caught up in what you're doing that you lose your ability to focus and get too frazzled to finish. Remember to pace yourself and take breaks when you feel the need.
