MTSU Students Stole $114,000 from the University

An investigation by the Tennessee Comptroller's Office, working in conjunction with the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation, has resulted in the indictments of Mohamed Gure and Mohamed Osman, two students at Middle Tennessee State University. The investigation began after MTSU officials became suspicious in 2020.

Investigators determined that Gure and Osman stole a total of $114,145 from the University between November 2017 and November 2020. The students' primary scheme was to submit false and fabricated invoices to misappropriate Student Activity Fee money.

Gure and Osman were presidents of MTSU's Somali Students Association. During their time in office, they submitted at least 85 false invoices to MTSU to obtain reimbursements totaling $82,200 of Student Activity Fee funds. Many of the invoices were for payments to non-existent vendors. A commonly

The Somali Students Association also received $3,000 in reimbursement payments from the Tina Stewart Campus Nonviolence Fund. Once again, fabricated invoices for honorarium payments for public speakers were submitted for events that were never held.

The total stolen amount also includes $28,945 that was misappropriated by Mohamed Gure in 2017 and 2018 while serving as a board member for the Muslim Students Association (MSA).

Gure submitted 28 fabricated or falsified invoices for expenditures that the MSA never incurred. These invoices were submitted to MTSU in order to obtain reimbursements from Student Activity

Mark Haga had a conflict of interest in funding home repair projects

The Tennessee Comptroller's Office has completed an investigation that has resulted in the indictment of Mark

Haga, the City of Kingsport's former community development program coordinator. The investigation was done in conjunction with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Office of Inspector General.

Haga was responsible for coordinating a program to fund home repair projects for Kingsport residents with low and moderate incomes. These projects were primarily funded through an annual Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) from the federal government.

Investigators determined that Haga had a conflict of interest when he awarded contracts to his brother-in-law's construction company to perform home repair projects totaling $731,940 between March 2008 and January 2020. Haga's brother-in-law was awarded contracts for 105 projects during that time. All of the city's Indicted ctd. pg. 7

Reckless

Damian Isaza, 21, Jackson St. Athens was charged with DUI, and Roadways Laned for Traffic.

Deputy S. Gaumer LCSO, was dispatched to a reckless driver in the area of northbound Highway 75 near the 72 mile marker. A driver behind a white, Toyota Corolla bearing TN license plate 6P94N5 reported that the Corolla was driving on the shoulder, in to the median, and in between lanes of travel, all the while being unable to maintain lanes.

Deputy B. Dishner, was able to observe the vehicle exit Highway 75 at the 81 exit where it ran a stop light and was unable to maintain its lane. Deputy Dishner conducted a traffic stop on that vehicle in the parking lot of the Shell Gas station on Highway 321. At this time, Deputy arrived on scene as he was getting out of his car. Deputy Dishner walked up to the driver, identified as Damian Isaza, the offender, and acquired his license. Deputy then met with him at the back of his car where he advised that he smelled the odor of alcohol coming from the car. He handed Deputy the drivers license and he walked over to speak with Mr. Isaza. As Deputy was standing near the car, he could smell the odor of alcohol coming from the vehicle and noticed that his eyes were blood shot and watery. Deputy then asked Mr. Isaza if he would be willing to perform voluntary roadside tests, to which he agreed. He exited his car and Deputy immediately noticed that he was unsteady on his feet. Mr. Isaza completed all three test, but performed poorly. At this point, Deputy asked Mr. Isaza how much he had had to drink this evening, and he said "a couple". Deputy asked if they were big or small, and he said "kinda big". Deputy then asked what kind of drink they were, and he said they were "liquor".

exhausted when it's over. Go for it! The only problem is one member of your household might not be up for too much noise. Try to make certain everyone keeps their voices down and don't play any loud music.

Aries 3/21-4/19

A long phone conversation could take place between you and a romantic partner, Aries. You could discuss philosophy, current events, the weather, and your opinions. The only thing you probably won't touch on is the status of your relationship, which could be frustrating for you. Nonetheless, you will learn a lot about your feelings that will enable you to understand each other better.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Creative work could require more focus and concentration than usual today, Taurus. You might need to do some in-depth research, intricate detail work, or another type of intense process that could strain your eyes and overstimulate your mind. Take breaks. Lie back and close your eyes now and then. Certainly don't forget to eat! By the end of the day, you should be pleased with what you've done.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Some young visitors may come to your home today, Gemini. You could unexpectedly find yourself called upon to entertain them. You don't usually like to be the center of attention, but on this occasion you might enjoy it. You could direct some games or tell a story or two. Whatever you do, both you and your guests should have a great time. Enjoy your day.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Today you might receive intense telepathic communications from someone you don't know very well, Cancer. This might be symptomatic of strong ESP abilities, or it might be that this person is sending out distress signals to everyone he or she knows. If you feel comfortable with the idea, you might try to get to know the person a little better. This person could need a friend right now.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Some intense work you've done in the past that you might have forgotten about could have caught the attention of someone in authority, Leo. Some long-overdue rewards for that work might come your way today. This should definitely prove a very pleasant and welcome surprise. It could have your mind reeling for a while. Come back down to Earth and then go out and celebrate!

Virgo 8/23-9/22

A strange conversation could take place with someone you don't know well, Virgo. He or she could be an acquaintance from work or someone who's just arrived from far away. The talk could outline new career possibilities that you've never considered but find appealing. You might spend time thinking about it. This may be different, but these are strange times. If it feels right, look into it!

Libra 9/23-10/22

Learning is apt to be your primary concern today, Libra, probably metaphysics, philosophy, history, or some other division of the humanities. You might spend a lot of time in libraries or bookstores or perhaps attend a lecture or workshop. Discussions are likely to follow, and the exchange of ideas will prove stimulating. Take copious notes and enjoy your day.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Some intense conversations could take place between you and a group of friends, Scorpio. These people may not be close friends when you meet up with them, but by the end of the day some of them certainly could be. You share a lot of interests with these people, you think along the same lines, and you enjoy each other's company. You will definitely see them again.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Today you might concentrate on some very close work, Sagittarius, perhaps a drawing or painting, sewing, jewelry making, or creating a new recipe. You may take longer to do this than you normally do, probably because there are a lot of details involved. This is good, because you will be happy with what you do. Take occasional breaks or you could strain your eyes.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

This morning, Capricorn, you could see nothing but piles of papers that you have no use for. You might go through them like a house afire, wanting to clear out as much clutter as you can. This is always good. A cluttered house parallels a cluttered mind. However, make certain you at least scan each thing before you discard it. You don't want to throw something out you may need later.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

A study of a philosophical or metaphysical concept or perhaps an ancient or foreign culture could take up a lot of your time today, Aquarius. Your mind is especially sharp and penetrating now, so you should notice more, learn more quickly, and retain more of what you read. The only downsides are possible eyestrain and a buzzing mind. Take a walk before you go to bed.

mind, Deputy placed Mr. Isaza under arrest of driving under the influence of alcohol. Due to the location of the vehicle, it was set to be towed from the scene. While Deputy Dishner was inventorying the vehicle for tow, he located a nearly empty bottle of Tito's Vodka in the passenger seat and an empty mason jar under the drivers seat. These bottles were documented on my body camera and returned to the vehicle. Mr. Isaza was read implied consent, and refused a blood or breath sample. Deputy then transported him to the Loudon County Jail without incident.

payments to Haga's brother-in-law were for $15,000 or less which allowed Haga to solely select a contractor without thorough review, formal quotes, or sealed bids by the city's procurement department.

Additionally, Haga authorized home repairs to his sister-in-law's residence for two projects totaling $18,100. Haga's brother-in-law (the sister-in-law's brother) performed the work on both projects.

These conflicts of interest exist as defined under both Tennessee state law and federal guidance issued for the Code of Federal Regulations.

The investigation further revealed that Haga's executive secretary had a conflict of interest when the city paid for home repairs on both her personal and her daughter's residences totaling $59,976.18. Furthermore, neither the executive secretary nor her daughter owned their homes when they received the majority of the repairs. Home ownership is an eligibility requirement for the program. Haga approved most the repairs for these projects without requiring proof of ownership.

Mark Haga resigned from his position effective January 31, 2020. On February 24, 2021, the Sullivan County Grand Jury indicted Mark Haga on 20 counts of official misconduct.

"As part of this investigation, it became clear the City of Kingsport needed to improve its oversight and documentation procedures," said Comptroller Jason Mumpower. "I am pleased to note that city officials indicate they have corrected or intend to correct those deficiencies."
