Scam PACs Are on the Rise

Do Your Research Before Giving to Candidates and Causes

After a failed run for U.S. Congress in 2016, Harold Russell Taub turned his energy to political fundraising. Namely, soliciting donations to two political action committees (PACs) he created.

Using a list of donors who had given to similar causes and attaching the name and image of a former secretary of the Navy to his efforts, Taub successfully solited more than $1.6 million in donations. Department of Justice charges show there were several problems with his PACs, however.

First, Taub never registered them. PACs pool contributions from donors and then contribute that money to support or defeat a candidate for office or further a cause or policy position. Election laws mandate that they be registered with the Federal Election Commission (FEC).

Second, the former Navy secretary wasn't even part of the PAC. "Taub was using his name and likeness without the official's permission," said FBI Special Agent Eric Miller, who investi-

Christopher White, 41, Hwy 411 South Maryville, was charged with Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. Of Meth, Simple Possession, and Poss. Of Drug Para.

Deputy Rogers LCSO, and Deputy Ward observed a vehicle traveling on Hwy 95 when it made an abrupt turn onto Craigs Chapel Rd.

While observing the vehicle Deputy observed the vehicle ran off the right side of the road nearly striking a fence row. The vehicle then turned on Morganton Rd and accelerated to 50mph in a 35mph zone. Deputy initiated a traffic stop and immediately observed the passenger frantically moving objects throughout the vehicle. Upon contact with the passenger, Mr. Christopher White, Deputy Ward observed what looked to be a firearm lying in the floorboard. Based on the suspicious movements of the passenger, the possibility of a firearm, the passenger's nervousness and the attempt of the driver to duck off onto a back road the area in reach of the passenger was searched for officer's safety. The search produced 1 gram of marijuana, scales with residue, a meth pipe and marijuana pipe. The gun in question was a replica airsoft pistol. The occupants of the vehicle stated they were going to different destinations, but neither destination equaled to why they turned on to Craigs Chapel. The driver Mr. Dalton Bowman stated he smoked marijuana earlier this said night and when questioned if he had smoked meth he mumbled that he did gated the Taub case and now supervises a federal public corruption squad out of the Washington Field Office.

There was still another element to Taub's scheme. "He told donors that 100% of their contributions were going to the cause when, in fact, he was spending that money on personal expenditures—things like excessive travel, wine, cigars, trips to Las Vegas, gambling," Miller said.

After pleading guilty to wire fraud and willfully violating the Federal Election Campaign Act by operating fraudulent and unregistered political action committees, Taub was sentenced to 36 months in federal prison. He was also ordered to pay more than $1.1 million in restitution to the victims.

There are many reputable, well established PACs that are properly supporting causes and candidates. But Miller warns that it is easy for a fraudster to establish a group, create a website, and begin asking for contributions.

"It's fairly easy to start reaching out to potential donors to say, 'We are backing this candidate or this political issue—please donate,'" Miller said. "The groups can look and sound legitimate, and that's one of the tough parts of keeping people from being victimized. The red flags aren't always obvious."

"If you feel strongly about a political issue or candidate, it's worth the time and effort to do the research to make sure your money is going to the cause you believe in."

Eric Miller, special agent, FBI Washington Field Office.

The FBI is seeing an increase in reports of potentially fraudulent PACs, and Miller said donors should be on high alert if approached by a new group. He also recommends people take these steps to make sure their donation is going where they intend it to go.

Visit the FEC's website and search the organization's name to see if the PAC is registered. If it is not registered, it is not legal.

Check where the PAC is spending its money. If the PAC is registered and filing its quarterly reports as PACs are mandated to, a donor can search their "disbursements" on the FEC website. Look to see what vendors it is using. Often, in a scam PAC, you will see the vendors are also associated with the operators. That should be a red flag. Similarly, if you see the same operator running multiple PACs, that can be an indicator of a scam.

Be wary of groups with names that are similar to more established organizations. Check to see how long the PAC has been around. It is, of course, normal for a group supporting a new candidate for office to be recently formed, but the candidate's official website will have the best information on how to give.

Taking money from another person and donating it to a candidate or PAC in your name is illegal. Any contributions must come from you.

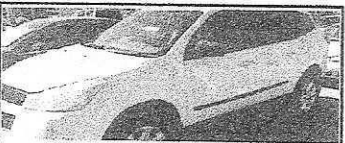

"If you feel strongly about a political issue or candidate, it's worth the time and effort to do the research to make sure your money is going to the cause won't be able to make it, or a friend has to turn down an invitation to a party you're having. Try not to let this spoil your mood. These things happen. Keep yourself busy.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

You may be worried about your financial situation today, Taurus. You might feel a tug at your purse strings. If you've experienced a delay in receiving some funds you were expecting, this may add to your concern. You might want to tackle this directly by examining your situation. Check up on expected funds and make any necessary arrangements to alleviate this stress.
Gemini 5/21-6/20

An unexpected event might cause you to be temporarily separated from your partner today, Gemini. Confusion about the incident and your mate's role in it might plague you. You might doubt his or her motives. If so, it may be best to talk and clear up any suspicions. Letting such thoughts sit for even a short time can create challenges for a relationship. Deal with the situation now.
Cancer 6/21-7/22

You might have a sore throat and mild cold symptoms today, Cancer. It may affect your ability to work. Chances are that you're an active person. Having to slow down to tend to your health may frustrate you. Consider going to the doctor's office now rather than ignore your health. This could make all the difference in how long you stay under the weather and are kept from things you want to do.
Leo 7/23-8/22

Spend some quality time with your partner today, Leo. Perhaps he or she is a little jealous of your friends or feeling left out. Perhaps you've received invitations lately that are just for you. It might be a good idea to turn one down in favor of being with your partner. Plan a romantic interlude. A little quality time can help get things back on track.
Virgo 8/23-9/22

You may want to take a day off from your obligations, Virgo, perhaps to take care of unfinished creative projects. Chances are this may not be possible. Concerns about work issues might keep your mind occupied and distract you from the task at hand. This and possible family disagreements may have you upset. Try to remain centered and focused despite it all. It's the only way to get anything done.
Libra 9/23-10/22

You may reminisce today, Libra.

Perhaps you're thinking about friends and family who live far away. You could feel a bit nostalgic, not to mention blue, thinking about times long past. Consider making some phone calls to counteract these feelings. If you can't connect with a particular person, spend a little time looking through a photo album to bring him or her closer to you.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21
Money matters might be a bit tangled today, Scorpio. There may be an unexpected delay in receiving funds due you. Your bank statement may have you confused. Getting to the bottom of things may prove a bit frustrating but not necessarily impossible. If you find that you're uncertain about your financial situation, consider talking with those involved to get a better understanding.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21
You may need reassurance today, Sagittarius. Trouble with friends or a romantic partner may have you feeling unloved, insecure, and emotionally blocked. You may see the situation as more serious than others do. Perhaps a misunderstanding has caused the dilemma. Take the time to reach out to those you're concerned about and get some reassurance. If you owe an apology, give it freely and move on.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19
You may feel a little under the weather today, Capricorn. You may even develop sniffles or a sore throat. If so, consider going to the doctor. This can be an especially unwelcome development, as it keeps you from certain activities. If you act quickly, your ailment may not worsen. Take the time you need to feel healthy again before returning to your routine.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18
You might feel lonely and insecure due to lack of contact with a close friend or romantic partner, Aquarius. You might wonder if the person has forgotten you or simply doesn't care anymore. Take the time to try to connect with this person. You may discover that no neglect was intended and that the relationship is solid. It's better for you to tackle this directly rather than speculate.

Pisces 2/19-3/20
Juggling work and home may seem difficult today, Pisces. Work responsibilities may weigh on your mind to the point where they interfere with the harmony of your home life. This can cause some inner conflict. It might be wise to prioritize work tasks on paper and schedule duties and deadlines. Then you can spend time with your family without worrying that work will be forgotten.
