Rep. Lowell Russell proposes to increase compensation for volunteer firefighters

State Rep. Lowell Russell, R-Vonore, yesterday introduced legislation in the House Local Committee that will provide compensation for volunteer firefighters who complete yearly in-service training. The measure is a part of Gov. Bill Lee's legislative package, who along with House leadership se-

Columbia Central Cheer Coach Indicted for Theft

An investigation by the Tennessee Comptroller's Office has resulted in the indictment of Melissa Todd, the cheer coach at Columbia Central High School in Maury County.

The investigation revealed that Todd directed that $905.03 of school funds be used to pay for her family member to attend a cheer competition in Orlando, Florida. Todd's family member was not an approved assistant or volunteer affiliate of the cheer program, and the family member's trip was not eligible to be paid with school funds.

Additionally, Todd could not account for $1,672.74 of cash that was collected during fundraisers or through other sources. Due to the disarray of the cheer team's records for collections and disbursements, investigators could not determine if all cheer funds were accounted for properly.

Finally, investigators reported that Todd concealed information related to a $44,029.09 debt owed to Varsity Spirit from the school. The cheer coach used this vendor for uniforms, supplies, and equipment.

Todd received bills for the entire $44,029.09 debt by October 2019, but the debt was not revealed to investigators and school officials until July 2020. Todd could not provide a full accounting for the purchases. Columbia Central has since paid the amount owed to Varsity Spirit.

On March 11, 2021, Melissa Todd was indicted by the Maury County Grand Jury on one count of theft, one count of forgery, and one count of tampering with or fabricating evidence.

"Our investigators have pointed to a number of weaknesses on the part of school officials who are responsible for ensuring all internal school accounting rules are followed," said Comptroller

Jason Mumpower. "School leaders have indicated they are working to correct issues such as complying with collection, expenditure, and deposit policies."

Jerriod Sivels Sentenced For Conspiracy To Distribute Cocaine And Money Laundering

On March 26, 2021, Jerriod Sivels, also known as Jerriod Lee, 31, of Chattanooga, was sentenced to 142 months in prison by the Honorable Travis R. McDonough, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee at Chattanooga.

Sivels previously pleaded guilty to one count of conspiracy to distribute 5 kilograms or more of cocaine, in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 846, 841(a)(1), and 841(b)(1)

(A), and one count of money laundering, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956(a)(1)(A).

The conviction was the result of an investigation into a drug trafficking organization responsible for distributing multiple kilograms of cocaine in the Eastdale and Brainerd communities of Chattanooga. Sivels was identified as a leader of the organization.

"This prosecution, which has made our community safer, provides an excellent example of the law enforcement successes that can be achieved through federal, state, and local collaboration," said Acting United States Attorney Francis M. Hamilton III. "The U.S. Attorney's Office values the coordinated law enforcement response that dismantled the drug trafficking organization in this case."

"Today's announcement should serve as a warning to anyone who seeks to poison our communities with dangerous and illegal drugs," said Special Agent in Charge J. Todd Scott, who oversees DEA operations in Tennessee, Kentucky, and West Virginia. "The Drug Enforcement Administration works very closely with our law enforcement partners, like the Chattanooga Police Department, to ensure that criminal drug activity is shut down and those responsible are brought to justice. We are very grateful to CPD for their on-going cooperation and assistance."

Chattanooga Chief of Police David Roddy said, "the Chattanooga Police Department is thankful for the partnership we have in the Federal system. The cooperative impact of our investigators and our Federal Partners has resulted in a prosecution that dismancompletely different direction, Aries. Don't get caught in an uncomfortable situation like this. If you move around on automatic pilot all the time, you may end up missing out on the things your heart truly longs for.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Look for answers to your question today, Taurus. The good news is that the answers are now out there and easily accessible. Seek the truth and you will find it. Make sure you probe more deeply than you might think to do. Instead of just asking for the answer, seek to find the full mechanics behind the problem. In this way, you're much more likely to find ultimate success.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

You may not necessarily approve of the behavior of the people around you, Gemini, but that doesn't mean you need to make their lives miserable. Be more accepting of others. Don't feel like you need to teach people a lesson simply because you don't understand their ways of life. You may be jumping to conclusions without taking the time to understand the situation.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

You have an extra amount of physical vitality to work with now, Cancer, so take advantage of it to give your body a good workout. Eat well and avoid fatty, salty foods. Fuel yourself with carbohydrates, protein, and fresh fruits and vegetables. With high energy, you can get a tremendous amount accomplished. Be aware that your emotional side may be extra sensitive, so be careful of conflict.

Leo 7/23-8/22

You may keep having the same thoughts over and over in your head, Leo. Each day you may work out a different scenario for the way it comes to an end. You know that you will get to this critical decision at some point in your life, so why not experiment with all the solutions now? Stay calm and turn to others when you get into a bind along the way.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Today may be filled with conflict when your legs carry you one way while your heart tugs you in a completely different direction, Virgo. Don't get caught in an uncomfortable situation like this. If you move around on automatic pilot all the time, you may end up missing out on the things your heart truly longs for.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Every day is a new start and new chance, Libra. Don't get upset or angry over past events. Don't dwelling on things you can't change. Your whole life can turn around in a day, so start every morning with a positive outlook. As you wash your face in the morning, think of it as a renewal. Clean off the debris from yesterday while welcoming the freshness of a new day.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

You're apt to move in and out of sync with people today, Scorpio. At first it may seem quite natural and easy to be in your situation, then the next minute you feel alone and uncomfortable. Understand that it's fine to have two conflicting feelings at the same time. Learn to relate to and embrace both frames of mind. Recognize them as important parts of your personality.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

You may feel as if you're the only one who picks up on the nuances of conversations and actions around you, Sagittarius. Your reaction to things is more than likely quite strong and will have a much greater impact on you now. Use this day to turn things around. It's time for you to create a stir. Be more dynamic and outer directed so you have a chance to release some of that inner energy.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

You may keep having the same thoughts over and over in your head, Capricorn. Each day you may work out a different scenario for the way it comes to an end. You know that you will get to this critical decision at some point in your life, so why not experiment with all the solutions now? Stay calm and turn to others when you get into a bind along the way.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

Bring more of your feelings into the open today, Aquarius. Don't be so paranoid about what other people think. At times you may feel as if you're in some sort of spy movie with you playing the lead role. The people around you are other players in the game, and you may feel that sometimes they can't be trusted. Maybe they're working for the enemy. It's time to dismiss these thoughts from your mind.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Have fun today, Pisces, but make sure you're always professional and polite. Appearance and a good-natured demeanor will get you far. Avoid rude comments or dirty jokes when in large groups of people. You may get a chuckle from those around you, but realize that this sort of behavior isn't always looked upon kindly. Perform noble deeds to help build your character.

This prosecution is the result of an investigation by the United States Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA"), the Chattanooga Police Department ("CPD"), and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives ("ATF"). The DEA Chattanooga Resident Office High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area ("HIDTA") Task Force led the investigation. THE HIDTA Task Force includes Task Force Officers from CPD, the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation, Hamilton County Sheriff's Office, Franklin County Sheriff's Office, Red Bank

Police Department, and the Tennessee Highway Patrol.

The investigation was a result of the Department of Justice's Organized Crime and Drug Enforcement Task Force (OCDETF) program, the centerpiece of the Department of Justice's drug supply reduction strategy. OCDETF was established in 1982 to conduct comprehensive, multi-level attacks on major drug trafficking and money laundering organizations. Today, OCDETF combines the resources and expertise of its member federal agencies in cooperation with state and local law enforcement. The principal mission of the OCDETF program is to identify, disrupt, and dismantle the most serious drug trafficking and money laundering organizations and those primarily responsible for the nation's drug supply.

Special Assistant United States Attorney Kevin Brown represented the United States. Brown is a Special Assistant City Attorney with
