Owner of Brewsters Services Group Involved In Fight

According to the report, on May 21, 2021 around noon, Loudon Police Department received a call in reference to a fight in the area of Brewsters Services Group on Mulberry Street in Loudon. This is the what officers were told and saw in reference to this incident.

At some earlier date, Mr. Blevins was at Carl Drive In in Loudon.

He was saying derogatory things about Mr. Ken Brewster. One of Mr. Brewster's family members happened to be present and overheard what Blevins was saying. The family member told Mr. Brewster what they had heard and Mr. Brewster became angry. Ken Brewster contacted Blevins over the internet via Social Media and invited him to come

Scott County Man Sentenced to 30 Years in Prison On Child Pornography Charges

On May 28, 2021 Preston Andrew Watson, age 30, was sentenced to 30 years in prison for production and distribution of child pornography by the Honorable Katherine A. Crytzer in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee at Knoxville. After Watson is released from prison, the United States Probation Office will supervise him for 20 years. Upon his release from prison Watson will also be required to register with the state sex offender registry in any state in which he lives, works, or attends school.

Watson had previously pled guilty to the charges. According to documents filed in the case, Watson duped, extorted, and threatened minors located in the United States and abroad to obtain child pornography from his victims. Watson met his victims on social media websites. He developed an online relationship with them and then requested that

Fentanyl

Amy Walden, 40, Dogwood Lane East Lenoir City, was charged with DUI, Due Care, Violation of Implied Consent, Simple Possession, and Contraband in Penal Institution.

Deputy Rogers LCSO, was dispatched to a wreck at Town Creek Rd E. Upon arrival Deputy observed a white Nissan Altima in the ditch off the right side of the road. Deputy made contact with the driver/offender Ms. Amy Walden, who stated she was headed home from work when she ran off the road. The offender was extremely lethargic and slurring her words. Ms. Walden did consent to SFST/ARIDE testing and performed poorly. Based on the totality of the circumstance Deputy placed the offender into custody for DUI. TN Implied Consent was supplied and read to the offender and she did refuse to give a blood sample. I transported Ms. Walden to the Loudon County Jail at which time Corrections Deputy Henry 396 striped searched the offender and located a baggie with a brown substance and a blue pill within it. Narcotics Deputy M Stanley tested the substance and confirmed it tested positive for Fentanyl and Cocaine. Ms. Walden stated she bought the substance believing it to be Heroin. Deputy charged the offender with DUI, Contraband, and Simple Possession. Ms. Walden was also cited with Due Care and Violation of Implied Consent. Said did occur in Loudon County, TN.

Reckless

Chance Evans, 28, Broadberry Ave Oak Ridge, was charged with DUI, Driving on Suspended License, and Violation of Implied Consent.

Deputy Eric Curtis LCSO, responded to a reckless driver call on Interstate 40 Westbound in the area of the 369 mile marker. Sgt. Fagiana made contact with and stopped a silver Ford Taurus driven by Chance Evans. Upon arrival, Deputy made contact with the driver, and he stated that he might have had a little too much to drink.

Deputy asked Evans if he would perform Standardized Field Sobriety Tests, and he agreed. The driver performed HGN, Walk and Turn, and One Leg Stand, and his performance indicated that he was impaired. Based on his performance on SFSTs, his bloodshot eyes and imbalance, and Deputy observing his driving behavior, Deputy placed Chance Evans under arrest for driving under the influence.

Deputy read him the Tennessee Blood and Breath Implied Consent

Advisement Form, and the driver refused to provide a sample.

A check of his license found that it was suspended.

The vehicle was released to the driver's father and he was taken to the Loudon County Jail without incident.

This did occur in Loudon County, TN.

they send him sexually explicit images of themselves. Watson threatened to send sexually explicit images of the minors to social media websites if the victims refused to comply with his demands for more sexually explicit images.

The investigation was conducted by the Department of Homeland Security, Homeland Security Investigations, and the Knoxville Police Department's Internet Crimes Against Children unit.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Jennifer Kolman represented the United States in court.

This case was brought as part of Project Safe Childhood (PSC), a nationwide initiative launched in May 2006, by the Department of Justice to combat the growing epidemic of child sexual exploitation and abuse. Led by the United States Attorney's Offices and the Criminal Division's Child Exploitation and Obscenity Section, PSC marshals federal, state, and local resources to locate, apprehend, and prosecute individuals who sexually exploit children, and to identify and rescue victims. to his place of business to say the same things to his face.

Blevins contacted a witness (Daniel Rodgers) and stated that Mr. Brewster had threatened his life (there is no evidence to support this claim) and that he was going to confront Ken Brewster. The witness decided to also go to Brewster's business in an attempt to stop Blevins.

Blevins says that once he arrived at Brewster's, he was attempting to open the front door when Ken Brewster punched him in the face. Ken Brewster states that Blevins came into his business yelling and swearing and that he did indeed punch Blevins in the face while he was attempting to get him out of his business after telling him to leave numerous times.

A witness (Frank Smallen, A Brewster Employee) stated that Blevins came into the business swearing and yelling toward Brewster. Brewster stated that at some point during the struggle Blevins produced a straight razor knife from his pocket. There was no claim that that knife was used or that Blevins made threats with it, only that he pulled it out of his pocket and held it in his right hand for a period before placing it back into his pocket. After the initial confrontation, Brewster followed Blevins and the witness to the property next door (Family Dollar Store).

When officers arrived Ken Brewster, Blevins and the witness were still at the Family Dollar Store yelling at each other. When asked about the knife Blevins repeatedly denied having it. A razor knife matching the description that Brewster had given was found by Officer Kenny Ridings, lying in the grass near where Brewster had told Sgt. Scott Newman that it may be found.

While Sgt. Scott Newman was initially gathering information in an attempt to figure out what was going on, Blevins made the statement that his purpose for going to Brewster's business was to attempt to provoke Brewster into striking him. Blevins made this statement to Officer Sam Harrison. Mr. Brewster is working on getting video footage from his business that may show definitively whether Blevins was inside Brewster's business when this incident started.

All parties were separated, this report was started and both parties involved were advised to seek private prosecution if they so desired.

In the affidavit of complaint filed in General Sessions Court by the victim it states:

Kenneth Brewster sent me a message on Facebook and invited me to his establishment. I walked in and asked the lady if Brewster was there with his hands in his pockets. He ran around the corner and punched me in the face. I turned my head back and he grabbed my chest and pushed me through the door where he continued to hit me until police arrived.

NO Charges have been filed in this case. We will let you know if any more information becomes available.

Horoscopes

tion, you find that you no longer agree with them. It seems that the conventions and social graces required by society are weighing you down.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

This is a pleasant day, Cancer. Indeed, the celestial aspects are predicting that it will be rather radiant, though likely less intense than the past week or so. You probably had some new perspectives to set up in your professional life, and now you will have to get to work setting goals! You were waiting for just this moment? Perfect!

Leo 7/23-8/22

Are you ready, Leo? Are you in shape for what's going to happen? The celestial aspects are heralding a new cycle that will be filled to the brim with activities, new people, and new professional perspectives. Let's hope that you've been able to rest up lately. If you haven't, try to schedule in some afternoon naps!

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Will there be change in you during the next few weeks, Virgo? This is always the question that one asks with this changing planetary environment. It's appealing to think that you may be traveling to exotic locations or perhaps changing jobs and meeting some interesting new people. Anything is possible with these aspects. Enjoy the renewed atmosphere!

Libra 9/23-10/22

A new wind is blowing in your relationships, Libra, and you probably won't be too sorry about it! The planets are lining up to signal new beginnings. You will be able to take advantage of your recent reflections and test your new self-image. You likely won't be disappointed by the results. Be happy. You have every reason to be!

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

You will be happy to know that today contains the seeds of change for your love life, Scorpio. Beginning today and for the next month or so, you're likely to be amazed by the turn of events in your relationships with others. The plot thickens as new people and groups emerge on your horizon. The aspect ahead is much less individualistic than usual. Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Last month you may have been somewhat more extroverted and sociable than usual, especially regarding your emotional relationships. But beginning today, your attitude will undergo a change, Sagittarius. You will probably be calmer and more reasonable. Your thoughts may begin to focus more on the future than the present. You have about a month to firm up your plans. Capricorn 12/22-01/19

As a person who loves to experiment with new ideas and discover new people, you will be delighted with the period that is now beginning. Since communication, together-ness, and sociability will rule the next few weeks, it will be a perfect time to get out and show off your gifts. You will have a ball, Capricorn!

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

Today's overall outlook is positive for you, Aquarius. You can expect to focus on giving a little more character, expression, or enrichment to your domestic life. You may redecorate a part of the house or find new leisure activities for the children. Don't be reluctant to suggest something original. They will probably enjoy it!

Pisces 2/19-3/20

You're embarking on a phase devoted in large part to your love life, Pisces! Make this time completely fulfilling by introducing fresh new ideas. Don't let these pleasures grow stale. The cycle ahead is extremely auspicious for romance. It's a good time to take a trip, just the two of you. If you're single, you may meet an uncommonly interesting new person.

Aries 3/21-4/19

After the emotional havoc you went through over the last few weeks, the period beginning today will be quite soothing. You can take advantage of these smoother, calmer waters to rediscover emotional harmony and improve the balance of your energy flow. Moreover, Aries, if your physical health isn't quite adequate, the weeks ahead should give you a chance to rest and recuperate.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

The celestial configuration is speaking of a new period in which you focus on the way you differentiate yourself from others, Taurus. Are you aware of the aspects that make you unique? If not, meditate on the subject or ask close friends for input. The upcoming weeks are going to teach you a lot about this subject!

Cookeville Fire Department Officers Received Improper Compensation Former and Current Fire Captains Indicted on Theft Charges

An investigation by the Tennessee Comptroller's Office has resulted in the indictments of former Cookeville Fire Captain Marvin Montgomery and current Cookeville Fire Captain Shawn Roberson.

Both Montgomery and Roberson not only worked at the Cookeville Fire Department, but they also worked as part-time instructors at the Tennessee Fire and Codes Enforcement Academy in Bell Buckle, Tennessee.

Investigators determined that Montgomery and Roberson effectively double dipped on their paychecks. They were each paid by both the city and the Academy for working the same hours at both locations.

Montgomery obtained $32,212.75 in compensation from the Cookeville Fire Department that he was not entitled to. The investigation revealed that between January 1, 2017 and February 28, 2019, Montgomery claimed pay for 1,345 hours that he did not work.

After the investigation began, Captain Montgomery retired from the fire department. At the time of his separation, the city collected $16,094.40 from Montgomery's accrued leave balance. There remains an unpaid balance of $16,118.35 due to the city.

Roberson improperly obtained $2,622.53 from the Cookeville Fire Department for 109.5 hours he did not work. This occurred between January 1, 2017 and February 28, 2019 when Roberson was serving as a lieutenant.

In May 2021, the Putnam County Grand Jury indicted Marvin Montgomery on one count of theft over $10,000, and Joseph Shawn Roberson on one count of theft over $2,500.

"Management oversight is an important component in preventing improper compensation," said Comptroller Jason Mumpower. "Supervisors and managers must carefully review timesheets and leave requests to ensure employees are only being paid for the time they are actually working."
