Textile Corporation of America Uses Scheme to Collect $3 Million Grant

The Tennessee Comptroller's Office, working in conjunction with several state and federal agencies, has completed an exhaustive investigation into the awarding of a $3 million Tennessee Department of Economic and Community Development (ECD) grant to Textile Corporation of America (TCA).

Investigators determined that TCA owners Karim and Rahim Sadruddin engaged in a scheme to receive these grant funds by submitting fictitious and fraudulent information to ECD. The investigation has resulted in guilty pleas in both state and federal court.

In 2017, ECD awarded the grant to TCA to purchase and renovate a building in Pikeville, Tennessee. Under the terms of the grant, ECD agreed to reimburse TCA for the building expenses incurred. In return, TCA owners pledged to manufacture textiles and create 995 jobs. Within the first year, TCA requested and received the entire $3 million, including the $850,000 cost of the building.

Investigators determined the Sadruddins see Scheme pg. 4

DUI+

Tiffany Gamble, 40, Price Road Lenoir City, was charged with Violation of Probation, Leaving Scene of Accident with Property Damage, DUI, Contraband in Penal Institution, and Man/Sell/Del/Resale SCH. II.

Deputy Craig Brewer LCSO, responded to a report of a collision on Price Road in Lenoir City Tennessee. On arrival Deputy found a gold Chevrolet truck, TN registration number 2L89Y8, in the middle of the roadway and a broken utility pole. On talking with people standing in their yards found the driver, a female, went up into the woods before his arrival. The owner of the vehicle's mother arrived and advised me a Tiffany Gamble was the driver of the vehicle. Deputy Chance Gray and his K-9 partner came to the scene and started a track do to the witnesses advising they thought the female was under the influence of an intoxicant. Tiffany Gamble was located after a short track she was located in the woods near her residence. Once in custody Mrs. Gamble admitted to Lt. Michael Watkins that she was the driver of gold pickup involved in the accident. On arriving at the jail she agreed to perform a battery of field sobriety test, HGN, Walk and Turn, and One Leg Stand. On doing the test she did poorly. On requesting her to submit to a blood test for BAC she refused to have blood drawn. Once at the jail and while being searched Deputy Hatfield located a baggy inside the Mrs. Gamble. Once retrieved it was determined the substance was 1.6 Grams on Fentanyl. Mrs. Gamble was in possession of the narcotic and had had hidden it to bring into the jail facility.

Scheme

made numerous false statements and submitted fictitious documents to the state in order to obtain the grant. These included:

Stating an established textile manufacturer in Pakistan was the parent corporation of TCA when, in reality, the manufacturer had no business relationship with TCA.

Stating that TCA and the Pakistani manufacturer had 3,480 employees worldwide when, in reality, TCA had no employees.

Submitting a copy of the 2016 audit report for the Pakistani company as evidence that TCA had adequate funds to invest in the $27.1 million dollar project in Pikeville. Again, TCA had no business relationship with this company.

Stating that TCA would hire 995 people. Karim Sadruddin admitted he knew TCA would never hire that many people, and he inflated the number of jobs in hopes of receiving more grant money.

Once the grant was awarded, TCA created and submitted fake invoices, wire transfer documents, and other information indicating that work was being done and contractors were being paid in order to receive grant reimbursement payments from the state. ECD relied on these fraudulent documents when it disbursed the grant money.

As of January 2019, TCA had completed a minor portion of the building retrofit and only 10 sewing machines had been temporarily installed. No manufacturing jobs had been created.

Investigators determined the Sadruddins used some of the grant money they received to invest in an unrelated business venture, make a campaign contribution, purchase a $54,500 Ford pickup, make payments on a residential building lot, and buy groceries.

Karim and Rahim Sadruddin have both pled guilty to multiple charges in state and federal court. Additionally, the Sadruddins have been ordered to pay restitution in the total amount of $7,005,895.76. The details of their guilty pleas, restitution, and sentencing are outlined in the investigative report.

“While this investigation describes a disappointing scheme, it also highlights the need for improved accountability over state grant money,” said Comptroller Jason Mumpower. “I’m encouraged to note that ECD is taking more steps to verify the validity of the information on grant applications, review supporting documentation more carefully, and ensure it is following its own policies and procedures surrounding grant awards.”

The Tennessee Comptroller’s Office would like to thank the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation, Federal Bureau of Investigation, US Department of Homeland Security – Office of Inspector General, and the Tennessee Valley Authority – Office of Inspector General for their cooperation on this investigation.

Recovered

Jamie Word, 43, Sycamore AZ, was charged with Theft of Property.

Deputy Stanley LCSO, was informed of a stolen vehicle traveling Northbound on I75. Deputy was informed that the vehicle in question (White Ford E250 Work Van) was stolen from the Marathon on Pond Creek Road in Philadelphia just moments before the call originally came out. Loudon County Dispatch was relaying the vehicle's location in real time via a GPS tracker installed by the vehicle's owner (Bama Air Systems). Deputy along with assisting deputies then saturated the area of 321 in Lenoir City, which was the last known location of the vehicle from the GPS.

Deputy then observed the vehicle matching the description stopped in the left turning lane on 321 headed towards I75 North. Deputy was able to catch up to the vehicle, and initiated a high risk traffic stop. Contact was made with the suspect (Jamie Marie Word) and she was detained without incident. Deputy Palmer, read Ms. Word her Miranda Rights, in which she refused to answer any questions without counsel present.

Jamie Marie Word was then placed into custody for the theft of the motor vehicle, and Deputy transported her to the Loudon County Jail without incident. All occurred in Loudon County.

A Statement was gathered by Deputy Brannum at the Marathon where the theft occurred, from the owner's employee. Owner stated that he ran inside the gas station to grab food and use the bathroom. He then stated the keys were inside the van, and when he came out the van was gone.

Horoscopes

enough enthusiasm to fulfill these dreams. You will question your personal strategies. You shouldn't try to convince others all the time. Your friends appreciate you just the way you are.

Leo 7/23-8/22

You have the tendency to plan everything, Leo. You need to feel in charge of things. Today you should try to listen to others around you. Let yourself go for a while, even though you aren't used to it. Furthermore, you need to develop your personality. You can do this by opening up to others.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

You're attracted to eccentric individuals with very strong personalities. But realize that behind this attraction lies a very strong need for freedom, Virgo. In your life, freedom is more fantasy than reality. The time has come for you to do some soul searching. Try not to hide from the realities of your life.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Today will destabilize you, Libra. You're trying to rebuild your life on new foundations. Perhaps should you try to change your point of view. Also, you need to preserve your perception, because it will allow you to adapt to all situations. You need to be fully alert and prepared at all times. Try not to become discouraged.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

You have a tendency to get very involved in your projects. Scorpio. Today the stars will compel you to clarify your situation. It's already clear that you aren't afraid to work long hours to ensure that your projects end in success. But your entourage will probably have difficulties keeping up with you. You're too full of energy.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Today the stars advise you to get back into the swing of things, Sagittarius. You will forget your past frame of mind and be able to prepare for a new adventure. Your vitality will be as strong as it has ever been. You will probably meet someone who has a beneficial influence in the days to come.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

There's a certain quality in your personal relationships that motivates you in life, Capricorn. This is one of the reasons why your emotions play an important role in the scheme of things. You're guided by your emotions. Today you will be in the best disposition to meet a lot of people who will give new impetus to your life.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

This period is full of difficulties and you will tend to question yourself, especially today. You will start thinking about your personality. Your ego risks bruising, and you will have the greatest difficulty turning your intention into real action. Your sensitivity prevents you from materializing your ideas.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

It would be fair to say that you love being recognized, Pisces. Today will enable you to show off your leadership skills. You will organize the day. You will accept your responsibilities and your smarts will help you welcome the day's challenges. But stay humble and keep your actions simple, especially after intense emotions.

Aries 3/21-4/19

You have a dynamic personality, Aries. With today's celestial energy, you should try to avoid expending your energy on pointless conversations. Try to be a little more pragmatic. Consider any possible compromises very carefully. If you stand strong, you will reach your objectives much more quickly.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Today you could learn a lot from other people who are similar to you, Taurus. They have the ability to get involved easily and go straight to the heart of any problem. The world is in constant flux. You have to question yourself if you want to attain your objectives. Try to be open-minded, adapt to the situation, and act before it's too late.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

The stars will compel you to clarify your position within the collective, Gemini. You have a lot of power when you're part of a group, but you're sometimes clumsy about communication. You can't always succeed. The planets' positions will have a beneficial impact, and you will tend to put your life under the microscope.
