Surgeon Sentenced

Doctor Needlessly Operated on Dozens of Women, Causing Physical and Mental Toll

Dr. Javaid Perwaiz knew exactly how to scare and manipulate his patients—by telling them they had cancer or were at serious risk for it. The scary news, combined with his authority as a doctor, meant the women in his care were the perfect victims for his crimes.

The Virginia obstetrician/gynecologist convinced women their health was in imminent danger.

He then pressured them into having immediate, invasive surgeries that they didn't need, including hysterectomies and dilation and curettage (D&C) surgeries, a procedure typically used for clearing uterine lining after a miscarriage or as a treatment for heavy bleeding. In some cases, he falsified pregnant patients' due dates so he could induce labor early on his own schedule.

Perwaiz's motivation was simple greed. The more surgeries he did, no matter how unnecessary, the more money he collected from Medicaid, Medicare, Tricare, and private insurance. Perwaiz lived a lavish lifestyle at the expense of his patients' physical and mental health. He shopped at high-end stores and owned luxury cars.

Destany Carver, 27, York Landing Woodlawn, was charged with Simple Possession, and Man/Sell/Del. Resale Sch. I.

Deputy Rodriguez LCSO, observed a black Chrysler Town and Country with a tag of DLC-018 traveling East bound on I-40 traveling at a speed of 76mph in a 70mph zone using my in-car radar system. Deputy conduct a traffic stop using his emergency equipment on I-40 East at Watt Road. Deputy made a passenger side approach and as Deputy was speaking to the driver he smelled a strong odor of raw marijuana coming from inside the vehicle. Deputy removed everyone from the vehicle and conducted a search of the vehicle with probable cause. During his search, Deputy located a purple purse/cell phone case in the passenger seat where there was four multi color pills inside the purse.

Deputy spoke with Destiny Carver, front seat passenger, and she advised it was old ecstasy. Further into my search, Deputy located a white joint with 3 grams of marijuana in it in a Marlboro Midnight pack.

Lastly, in the trunk of the vehicle, officers located two clear baggies with marijuana in them in a "Pink" bag. Both bags had a total of 31 grams of marijuana in them.

Mrs. Carver took position of all the narcotics and was placed in custody. A TruNarc test was administered.

The driver was given a verbal warning and Mrs. Carver was placed in custody. This occurred in Loudon County, TN.

FBI

More than $20 million was billed over 10 years in fraudulent claims, but the human toll is incalculable. Perwaiz's actions left many patients traumatized. Some experienced serious harm like incontinence or the inability to have sex.

Following the news of Perwaiz's arrest, more than 500 former patients contacted the FBI tip line.

"Many women who were subjected to this did not know what surgeries they had or why," said Special Agent Desiree Maxwell, who investigated this case out of the FBI's Norfolk Field Office. "The patients were afraid, and he manipulated them."

There were warning signs over Perwaiz's decades in medical practice. Investigators found at least eight malpractice suits. His medical license had been censured in the 1980s. Perwaiz's license was briefly suspended in the 1990s after he was convicted of federal tax fraud.

But no one put together the pieces of Perwaiz's longstanding, abusive treatment of women until a tipster told the FBI that women were coming into the hospital for surgery unaware of why they were there.

That's when investigators started looking into him and found alarming signs. For one, 40% of his Medicaid patients wound up having surgery. Of those, 42% had multiple surgeries—a very high number.

"The patients were afraid, and he manipulated them."

Desiree Maxwell, special agent, FBI Norfolk

A search warrant and cooperation from inside the practice showed more evidence. But investigators needed proof Perwaiz was willfully lying to his patients.

They found it when a young woman in her early 20s went to Perwaiz for care in 2019. He told her she had uterine fibroids that needed to be removed immediately. But the staff in Perwaiz's practice knew the woman's ultrasound was normal.

So, investigators from the FBI and Defense Criminal Investigative Service approached the patient. Would she be willing to record her next phone call with Perwaiz?

While secretly being taped, Perwaiz boldly lied to his patient, telling her she had "big" tumors that needed to come out through abdominal surgery.

"He was great at exploiting patients," Maxwell said. "He used fear of cancer, or, in other cases, fear of infertility to convince them to go through with surgery."

Maxwell noted that Perwaiz often exploited the same woman multiple times, telling her something was concerning in her first surgery, and he needed to do more surgeries.

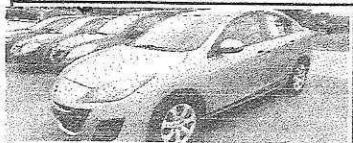

One helpful aspect of a health care fraud investigation is that insurance providers require paperwork to reimburse medical providers. To get reimbursed, Perwaiz created duplicate records. One was a patient's actual medical record, and the other was a false one claiming the need for surgery—essentially, a detailed paper trail of the crime. In one case, Perwaiz forgot to shred the real medical record, another strong piece of evidence.

A jury found Perwaiz guilty on 52 counts of health care fraud in November 2020. In May 2021, he was sentenced to 59 years in prison. Prosecutors proved his crimes happened at least between 2010 and 2019, but women came forward from decades ago claiming victimization by Perwaiz. Numerous victims testified at trial to the harm Perwaiz had caused them.

The case was a rewarding one for the investigative team, knowing that Perwaiz did physical and emotional harm to dozens of women.

"It's impossible not to get emotional when you hear these women's stories. It's horrible what he did to them," Maxwell said. "It's a shame he got away with this for so long, but knowing he will never touch another woman is a huge sense of accomplishment."

Jackie Turpin, 58, Foster Road Lenoir City, was charged with Reckless Endangerment, and Evading Arrest.

Jackie Lynn Turpin was traveling North on Grove Street, in a 2006 tannish/brown colored Kia (TN-1V22Z4). While doing so, Turpin admits to intentionally discharging 3 rounds from a .45 caliber Smith & Wesson pistol towards the Loudon Garden Apartments, where his ex-wife resides. Turpin advises he did so because he was upset with his ex-wife and that he wanted to send her a "message". Turpin advises that he then threw the pistol into the river, while crossing the Highway 11 Loudon bridge, when he realized law enforcement was pursuing the incident. Officer Sam Harrison LPD, then attempted to stop Turpin as he turned left onto Rock Quarry Road, but refused to stop and instead continued to evade until finally being "boxed in" by other Loudon Police Department officers. Turpin was then taken into custody without further incident. Inside the suspect vehicle were 2 "spent" .45 caliber casings, laying on the floorboard.

Multiple witnesses have confirmed the incident, including one witness who actually saw observed the shooting as he drove past Turpin's vehicle on Grove Street, and had to lean over for fear of being shot. Turpin was charged with Felony Reckless Endangerment and Felony Evading.

important decisions. You're demanding of your friends and loved ones. Have you ever thought about why? It's possible that you demand more of them than you do of yourself, and that doesn't seem fair, does it? Today insight and inspiration will show you how you can rectify this. Lower your standards for others or raise your standards for yourself. Level the playing field.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

You may be thinking about everything you need to do to improve your work situation. You've made your demands clear, but no one seems to be paying attention. Maybe you've approached the wrong people. This could be just the excuse you've always needed to become your own boss. You have creativity and sound business ideas, Virgo. Why not see if you can combine the two?

Libra 9/23-10/22

You're sensitive, Libra, and impressionable. You may not appreciate the intense atmosphere building, but it may be just what you need to get motivated. Yes, you're about to face a lot of pressure, but you can handle it. No more planning, no more delays, no more staring off into space. Buckle down and get your work done. You can fantasize during your free time.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

It's one thing to stick to your guns, another altogether to do so without considering the views of others. People may resent this stubbornness. Scor-

pio. Today you're encouraged to take a good look at yourself. Practice listening rather than speaking and you may be amazed at what you learn. Other people have opinions, too. Some of them are valid. Imagine that!

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Today you may be confronted with one of the harsher aspects of your personality, Sagittarius. It can be a bit of a shock when such a thing happens. It may be that your temper flares or you wrestle with feelings of jealousy. You're normally on top of your emotions, and losing control in any way is upsetting. Don't fret. You're human like everyone else. Learn what you can from the experience and move on.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Today you won't feel quite like your usual upbeat self, Capricorn. There's nothing to be concerned about. It's just that you have a lot to do and can't help but be focused on it. You certainly are conscientious! See if you can't get out for some fun after you've finished your tasks. You've earned a break.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

You're feeling altruistic today, Aquarius. You're eager to do what you can for others. You can now put into action all those lofty visions of volunteering for a worthy cause. It's time to do some real work. You'll be astonished at how great it feels to make a direct contribution. Spending time chopping vegetables in a soup kitchen is much more satisfying than mailing a check.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Children are highlighted today, Pisces, either yours or someone else's. You could be in one of the healing professions. If you're a nurse or doctor, you may have the opportunity to make a big difference in the life of one of your patients. If you're a parent, see if you can spend extra time with your children. You will all benefit from some quality time together.

Aries 3/21-4/19

You have a generous spirit, Aries. And today you're feeling particularly altruistic. Finally, you have a chance to help your fellow man in a very real, direct way. Forget about big goals and lofty visions. Don't try to set out to eradicate world hunger. You can go down to a local shelter and help cook a meal for a few dozen people. The personal contact will do you good.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

This may be an intense day, Taurus, especially if you follow your instincts and say what needs to be said to loved ones. There may be some unresolved issues at home. Do you and your siblings need to address them? If so, today is the day. You can expect some emotional reactions. This will be draining at first but ultimately therapeutic.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

This is just the kind of day you like, Gemini - intense and supercharged, just like you! It seems there's a deadline coming up, or a time-sensitive project. You'll have a lot to do and not a lot of time in which to do it. This is when you're at your most productive. Just remember to drink plenty of water and eat. Even superheroes need fuel in order to accomplish their heroics.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

You're an organized, disciplined person, Cancer. No one who knows you would disagree. But there are times when you need to loosen up a bit, and this is just such a time. Forget about work, chores, and all your daily obligations. You've been working too hard lately. Live a little. Take a holiday. Don't think of this as being irresponsible. Think of it as being human!
