Former Gibson County PTO President Indicted for Theft

Kacey Criswell led PTO at Spring Hill School

An investigation by the Tennessee Comptroller's Office has led to the indictment of Kacey Criswell, the former PTO president and treasurer at Spring Hill School—part of the Gibson County Special School District.

Investigators determined that Criswell misappropriated at least $17,586.08 from the PTO between July 2015 and November 2019. The investigation began after school officials reported missing PTO funds.

Much of the money was stolen when Criswell failed to deposit money that was received from fund-raisers and basketball concessions. Criswell also wrote checks payable to cash to be used as change funds for concessions and fund-raisers; however, she did not deposit some of the change funds back into the bank account.

In order to conceal her activities, Criswell changed the PTO's bank account address to her personal mailing address so that she

He answered, "Do you not know what these are?"
"No, my lord," I replied.

William Keller, 25, Reed Spring Road Sweetwater, was charged with Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. Of Meth, Poss. Of Drug Para., and Driving Unregistered Vehicle.

Deputy L. Hawkins LCSO, was traveling north on Dry Valley Road. Deputy noticed a vehicle ahead of him traveling the same direction. Deputy gave the Tennessee registration 9S8-9A6 to the Loudon County Dispatch to check for warrants or any NCIC entries. They advised him it came back to a 2001 Nissan Sentra registered to a Thompson out of Madisonville and that the registration was suspended. Deputy then conducted a traffic stop on Dry Valley Road at Dry Ridge Road. Deputy made contact with the driver, William Keller, and the passenger. Mr. Keller advised Deputy he was not aware that the registration was suspended, and that the vehicle was loaned to him by Thompson within the last week. Mr. Keller was extremely nervous and kept looking downward. Deputy asked him to step out and speak with him. Deputy asked him if there was anything illegal in the vehicle and he replied, "Not that I know of." Dep. Jenkins asked passenger the same question. She stated there was a methamphetamine pipe in the vehicle, on the passenger side of the car. Deputy then asked her if there was any methamphetamine in the car, she replied "Look for the medicine capsule." Deputy conducted a probable cause search on the vehicle and recovered a blue glass pipe with crystal like residue inside it next to the passenger seat. Also next to the passenger seat, a purple capsule was found. Inside it was 1.2g of a clear/crystal like substance in a small baggie that appeared to be methamphetamine. Both subjects were advised of their Miranda rights and asked what it was, and who it belonged to. Passenger advised it was methamphetamine and Mr. Keller's. When Deputy activated his emergency lights he threw the capsule and the pipe next to her seat to hide it. Deputy asked him and he did confirm this, he advised it was in his pocket and he placed it next to the seat to hide it. He was taken into custody. The Loudon County Narcotics Unit was advised of this incident.

Imprisoned

Joshua Bradley, 25, Grimes Road Loudon, was charged with False Imprisonment.

Deputy Rodriguez LCSO, responded to Grimes Road in regards to a domestic disturbance between spouses. Upon arrival, Deputy spoke with Victim/Complainant, who advised him Joshua Bradley, Arrestee, has been drinking alcohol and took her keys when she wanted to leave the residence. She advised it was her only means of travel and when I asked Mr. Bradley if he knew where they were at he advised he did not. When told to find the keys multiple times, Mr. Bradley finally went straight to where the keys were placed which was at the neighbors backyard. Due to the circumstances of Mr. Bradley keeping Ms. Bradley from leaving and the history with law enforcement between the two, Deputy placed Mr. Bradley in custody for false imprisonment. This occurred in Loudon County, TN.

Federal Jury Convicts Massachusetts Man On Five Counts Of Child Exploitation Related Offenses

Following a four-day trial in United States District Court at Greenville, a jury convicted Nicholas Nassif Hayek, 22, of Leominster, Massachusetts, of knowingly or attempting to knowingly entice a minor to engage in sexual activity, knowingly or attempting to knowingly persuade a minor to engage in sexually explicit conduct for the purpose of producing any visual depiction of such conduct, knowingly transferring obscene matter to another individual who had not attained the age of 16 years, knowingly receiving child pornography and knowingly possessing child pornography involving a child less than 12 years of age.

Sentencing is set for November 29, 2021, at 1:30 p.m., before the Honorable J. Ronnie Greer, in United States District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee at Greenville. Hayek faces a maximum life sentence in prison and a 10-year minimum mandatory and a 15-year minimum mandatory for count one and two, respectively, for enticing a minor.

The evidence presented at trial demonstrated that Hayek found a 10-year-old child via social media. Hayek befriended the child and at trial the jury saw numerous chat messages exchanged between the two. The messages also detailed the countless requests from Hayek asking the child to send him nude photos. Law enforcement also obtained 22 pictures and one video of Hayek exposing himself to the child.

Acting U.S. Attorney Francis M. Hamilton, III of the Eastern District of Tennessee, made the announcement.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation led the investigation. See Convicted ctd. pg. 4 would receive bank statements. She also altered PTO financial reports to indicate the PTO's money was being deposited.

Criswell did pay back $14,144.01 to the PTO; however, she still owes the PTO $3,442.07. The PTO was formally dissolved in August 2020.

In July 2021, Kacey Criswell was indicted by the Gibson County Grand Jury on one count of theft over $10,000.

In addition to the misappropriation, investigators are also questioning $5,092.64 that was used for purchases that were unsupported by itemized receipts or other supporting documentation. Investigators could not determine if the purchases were used exclusively for the PTO's benefit.

"School support organizations must ensure they are watching the money," said Comptroller Jason Mumpower. "It's important to keep invoices or receipts for every transaction, require two signatures on checks, and ensure two responsible individuals are signing off on any money collected during fundraising activities."

race, Leo, but today you might need to take some shortcuts. Jump on opportunities that seem to come out of nowhere, but don't feel like you need to commit to anything now. Take your chances and see where luck takes you. There's an adventurous spirit in the air urging you to take an unexpected gamble.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Don't deny your emotions today, Virgo. They will be of great use to you. There's an intensity about your feelings that's helping you stay strong in just about every situation. Opportunities lie within groups of people. Shared enthusiasm for a task makes the job go more quickly. Join others in the pursuit of prosperity.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Indecisiveness may plague you today, Libra. Be careful that you don't avoid doing something simply because you don't know which way to go. To cure your restlessness, you should think about going on a short trip. Travel will most certainly help alleviate any worries about a certain situation. The answer you seek will come more easily.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Take things to the limit today, Scorpio, and then go beyond. This is one of those days in which people may go to extremes, especially emotionally. You have the right to push the boundaries and see how far you can go. There's no need to delay. If you're going to do something, do it now. There's an intense surge of power that should be there to help you along your way.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Stop your pondering over something and do it, Sagittarius. This is a day to be spontaneous and adventurous. Although this may feel a bit foreign and against your usual grounded nature, it would be a good idea to take this time to do something on a whim and see where it takes you. Don't be afraid of the unknown. The future is an exciting concept because it's unknown. Embrace it.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

This may be a climactic day for you, Capricorn, especially when it comes to your emotions. You could find that people try to wield some sort of power over you. Maybe they're trying to throw their weight around to get you to do something. Don't be manipulated. Stand up for yourself and be strong.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

Instead of turning all your burning questions inward today, Aquarius, you might want to consider broadcasting them outward. Engage in discussions and extend your queries to the group. You may usually try to solve all the world's problems on your own, but once in a while you should stop and consider other points of view in order to enrich your perspective.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

There's a great wind under your wings today, Pisces, and you may find the day's energy quite transforming. You now have the opportunity to make great strides in whatever you wish to accomplish. It may be time for you to make an important change in your current attitude. Embrace differences in perspective and opinion. Varied opinions can help you understand a situation.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Try not to weigh everything down. Don't pick things apart to the point that all that's left are the tiny details of the situation. Aries. Deal with it as a whole. Mental and emotional issues are apt to be of greater concern to you. You shouldn't try to dissect them. That will only create more issues than you started with.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

As you work to keep things in balance today, Taurus, remember that one of the key things is to have fun. Happiness is an extremely important element of the cosmic equation, especially on a day like this. The more upbeat you can be regarding a certain situation, the easier it will be to tackle it. A smile can get you through just about any door you wish to enter.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Don't get too emotional about a situation today, Gemini. You could feel a sinking feeling, but if you go that route you may end up in a pit of emotional quicksand that's hard to escape. Make sure you have a friend to talk to so you're prepared for whatever you might encounter on your emotional journey.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

This is a terrific day for you, Cancer. You should easily feel its power coming together in an upbeat, positive way. Others are apt to fall into place by your side as they realize the wisdom in your way of doing things. Remain confident and positive. Your adventuresome spirit is ready, so push away from the dock.
