Diversifying the FBI Beacon Project Connects FBI, Historically Black Colleges and Universities

The collaborative partnership between Bobbie Knight and Johnnie Sharp, Jr. may seem like an unlikely one. Knight is the president of Miles College, a 1,500-student historically Black college in Fairfield, Alabama; Sharp is the special agent in charge of the FBI's Birmingham Field Office. While educating the next generation and fighting crime may seem like very different jobs, the two actually work together on projects that benefit both institutions.

"We as an organization want to be reflective of the communities we serve, so it is a natural fit for us to have a special relationship with Miles College," Sharp said.

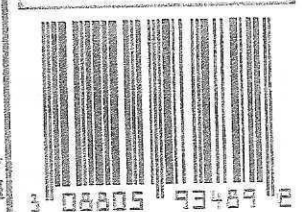

The FBI has succeeded in recruiting several Miles College students to join the Bureau.

It's not always an easy sales pitch during a time of increased strain between law enforcement and the Black community, but recruiting diverse talent is critical to the organization's success.

"A lot of our students just haven't had the exposure," Knight said. "And so to have people come to the campus and talk about real, genuine careers with the FBI—it's exciting to them."

DUIx2

Misael Arreola, 25, Tom Hailey Blvd LeVergne, was charged with DUI by Consent.

Agustin Fuerte Dominguez, 30, W 58th St Summit, was charged with DUI, Open Container, and Driving without a Valid License.

Deputy Rogers LCSO, was dispatched to a reckless driver call in the area of Hwy 321 and Hwy 70. The caller advised the vehicle, a black Tacoma, was failing to maintain its lane and was driving up the emergency lane on I75 SB before exiting at the 81mm.

Deputy made contact with the vehicle on the side of Hwy 321 at White Wing

Rd. Upon contact with the driver I noted he had blood shot watery eyes, smelled of an alcoholic beverage and was placing an opened beer in the passenger side floorboard. The driver stated his GPS was not working and he was lost. After further investigation the driver, Agustin Fuerte Dominguez, stated he had drank 2 beers and was currently drinking while driving to Nashville. Mr. Dominguez showed all 6 clues during HGN. SFST was not completed in its entirety due to a language barrier. Loudon Co. E911 advised the vehicle came back to Misael Arreola Gutierrez, who was the front passenger and that neither subject had a valid license. While Speaking to Mr. Gutierrez, he stated that he observed Mr. Dominguez drink 4 beers while driving.

Based on the totality of the circumstances I did arrest Mr. Dominguez for DUI, Driving without a License and Open container. Mr. Gutierrez was arrested for DUI by Consent. I did supply Mr. Dominguez with a Spanish version of TN Implied Consent and he advised he did not understand. Said did occur in Loudon County TN.

LCSO

Montgomery Sanders, 26, Collins Street Loudon, was charged with DUI, Poss. Of Drug Para., and Driving on Roadways Laned for Traffic.

Deputy Rogers LCSO, observed a white sedan cross the double line into his lane of travel while traveling on Hwy 11 near G Street.

Deputy then followed the vehicle and noted it swerved violently twice near N Street, at which time Deputy initiated a traffic stop. Upon contact with the driver, Mr. Montgomery Sanders, he was sweating profusely and had pin point pupils.

Mr. Sanders stated multiple times unprovoked that he was driving sober. Mr. Sanders did consent to SFST/ARIDE testing and showed signs of being heavily impaired. Mr. Sanders estimated ed 30 seconds to be 18 seconds, had violent body and eye lid tremors, as well as signs of nasal insufflation. See field notes for further signs of impairment.

Mr. Sanders did state that he was currently taking Suboxone to help fight his opioid addiction. Upon a consented search of the offender's vehicle Deputy did recover multiple beer cans and a set of scales with marijuana residue. Compiling the totality of the circumstance

Deputy took Mr. Sanders into custody for DUI and then read him TN Implied Consent. Mr. Sanders did consent to a blood draw and Deputy transported him to the Fort Loudoun E.R where said occurred. I then transported the offender to the Loudon County Jail.

Said did occur in Loudon County, TN.

"The point we try to convey to young folks is, 'You're part of the solution. If not you, then who? You come with a great skillset that we're looking for. We want you to be a part of the organization,'" Sharp said.

Relationships like Sharp's and Knight's are one of the goals of the Beacon Project, a new initiative the FBI launched at a two-day conference in Huntsville, Alabama, in June 2021. Beacon seeks to foster a genuine, long-lasting relationship between underrepresented communities and the FBI.

FBI Director Christopher Wray and other Bureau leaders gathered with Historically Black College and University (HBCU) presidents and senior leaders on June 28 and 29 to discuss how the FBI and HBCUs can work together. Music executive Kevin Liles facilitated the event.

The 32 HBCU leaders received briefings on topics like the recruiting process, the Honors Internship Program, and the functions of several FBI divisions. They learned about careers that their students might be interested in and how to best prepare them to lend their skills to the FBI's mission of protecting the American people and upholding the Constitution of the United States. While science and technology careers were a major topic of discussion, FBI personnel also highlighted public affairs and community relations, viable options for students studying communications and similar fields.

FBI Associate Deputy Director Jeffrey Sallet asked HBCU leaders to help the FBI diversify its ranks, making the organization more effective in protecting the country. The FBI continues to struggle to recruit and hire minority applicants, particularly in the special agent role, but diversifying the FBI has been an increasing focus in recent years.

"Diversity is at the core of the FBI," said Sallet. "We need to reflect the communities that we serve, because when people look at us, they need to see themselves. If they don't see themselves, it's harder for them to trust us, which is why we are working every single day to be better."

The Beacon Project is one way the FBI is strengthening its connection to the African American community after a checkered history. The FBI recognizes a need to create trust, to cultivate mutual understanding, and to build a workforce that better reflects and serves the Black community.

The engagement will continue beyond the kickoff meeting. More HBCU leaders will be invited to the FBI Citizens Academy—a multi-week program that gives business, religious, civic, and community leaders an inside look at the FBI and fosters a greater understanding of the role of federal law enforcement in the community (Knight, for one, will be attending the FBI Birmingham Citizens Academy this fall). Recruiting will be ramped up at HBCUs, and plans to launch Collegiate Academies—similar to Citizens Academies—at HBCUs in the coming years are in the works.

Help

Sarah Parks, 33, Mealer Road Lenoir City, was charged with Domestic Assault.

Deputy L. Hawkins LCSO, was dispatched to Yarberry Campground Lot #6 in reference to a female saying her "soon to be ex-husband" was out to get her. The Lenoir City Fire Department was the caller and he advised Sarah Parks came running up to him asking for help. Deputy arrived on scene and spoke with Sarah, she was extremely upset and had been drinking. She stated, her husband, and her had been arguing throughout the day over financial issues. They arrived at Yarberry Campground to visit victim's parents and go out on the boat. They dropped their children off with their grandmother and went out on the boat. While they were out they began to argue again, she smacked an alcoholic beverage out of his hands while he was operating the boat. Deputy asked her why she did this and she replied, "I don't like him drinking and driving." She claimed that victim struck her in the left temple on her head, four times with a beer can. He then began to call her names and threaten to throw her off the boat, and in her words "pretended to kick me off the boat." She audio recorded the incident from her Apple watch but due to the background noise Deputy was unable to understand the audio in the portion Deputy listened to. There were no markings on Mrs. Parker's head indicative to her being stuck. Deputy then made contact with victim and spoke with him. He also stated they were arguing over financial issues throughout the day, and also her drinking habits. Once they got out on the boat, they began to argue again. He ignored her and him doing so, made her angry. She then grabbed the glasses off of his face and threw them in the water. He reached his hand up to block her from doing so and knocked her glasses off as well. She then struck him in the face multiple times. He advised he did have a beer can in his hand and was attempting to block her strikes. He then turned the boat at a hard angle to throw her off balance to her away from him. While speaking with him Deputy did notice he had a scratch on the left side of his forehead. He was unsure if it was from her taking his glasses off or her striking him. Victim gave a written statement. Based on statements from both subjects and the markings on victim's forehead, Sarah Parks was determined to be the primary aggressor. She was placed into custody and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

by some free time, Virgo. You can try and save it for later, but you may not feel the same way then. Try to apply your creativity to a faster or more efficient way to do a particular job or make a dull job more exciting. If you can't give in to that urge now, write down your ideas and plan to return to them soon.

Libra 9/23-10/22

You probably have a knack for listening to other people and noticing when they need help or a shoulder to cry on, Libra. Today may be excellent for you to help another person out. Consider going the extra mile by lending a hand to those around you who are in need. Show your extraordinary caring ability and be a true friend. Make someone smile.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

It's possible that someone will question your motives or wonder whether or not you're genuine, Scorpio. Don't take it the wrong way. You don't take everything at face value either. Show your sincerity by following through and sticking by your word. If you can't avoid going back on your word, explain the situation to the person involved. This will show that you're sincere.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Today's a good day to work toward the goals you've set, Sagittarius. The aspect of the day influences your ability to focus on the necessary steps to achieve what you want. No goal is too big! Each step you take toward it will give you focus and improve your life. As time goes by, you'll discover that what previously seemed out of reach is now within your grasp.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

You may watch the clock today, Capricorn. It can be hard to focus on tasks when you're thinking about relaxing, but do your best. You won't get through your tasks any faster if you're unfocused. You might even sabotage what you're doing if you're distracted. You don't want to make more work for yourself than what you started with.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

If someone you know is going through a rough time, Aquarius, they could come to you for support or advice. People see you as genuinely concerned and a good friend, especially when times are tough. You've probably earned their respect through your caring and helpfulness. By being such a good friend, you're surrounded by people who will be there for you when you need them.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

With some leisure time on your hands, you'll find an opportunity to start fresh in some area that has challenged you, Pisces. Find the courage to examine your attitudes toward adverse situations. Armed with your new knowledge, you might have a new insight that allows you to approach an old problem in a different way. You'll discover that you have more power than you thought.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Today you might want to try something completely new, Aries. If you've never done this before, why not try expressing yourself through dance? Even if you're convinced you have two left feet, you might be surprised. Whatever your style, there's a type of dance you can do, whether it's as simple as the twist or as flamboyant as flamenco. You'll feel great, and it's good exercise.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

If you're not already so inclined, Taurus, why not try expressing yourself through song? Even if you're convinced you have a tin ear, you might be surprised at what happens if you just let yourself go. Do you feel silly singing out loud? Then be silly. Ham it up and have some fun. Even if you're tone deaf, you'll have a great time, and that sort of feeling is infectious.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Gemini, you may discover today that you have a talent for something you've never even thought about before. If you always stick to what you know, how will you ever experience anything new? Trying this unexplored area doesn't mean you have to excel in it. As long as you're completely absorbed and having fun, you'll enjoy a positive experience. Don't shy away from this. Go with it!

Cancer 6/21-7/22

It's a new day, Cancer, a good day to let your caring side show. Take the time to smile and chat with as many people as you can. They will be drawn to your friendly personality and you'll all enjoy your time together. If someone is having a rough day, let him or her know you care. Spend a few minutes listening to the problem and show you really understand.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Today brings the opportunity to see things as they are and not as you'd like them to be. It's easy to fool yourself sometimes, but you can only get away with that for so long before the truth comes out. There comes a time when you need to face things. Any time is an excellent time to start fresh. Take your time and trust in yourself.
