Robert Bartsch, 65, Tom-motley Drive Loudon, was charged with Stalking, and Vandalism.

The victim came to the Loudon County Sheriff's Office to speak with Investigator about an issue he was having at his boat slip located directly behind the Tanasi Club House at Club House Point in Loudon, TN. Victim spoke with Deputy about his boat slip neighbor who had struck his new Bennington Pontoon Boat with his aluminum fishing boat as well as the neighbor using an aerosol paint stripper in the open air on his boat. Victim spoke with the individual, identified as Robert Bartsch, as well as the Tellico Village POA about the dents and the use of the aerosol stripper used on the boat. Tellico Village POA, after some time, allegedly reached out to Mr. Bartsch in an attempt to get him to trailer the boat for a maintenance job of that type. After this interaction victim has been having numerous issues with items in, on, and around his boat to include; dock lines being put in the water, boat cover being undone, gas caps being opened and left hanging, fuel cell cap being loosened, issues with the steering column, and a beer bottle being put in his boat under the cover. These issues have occurred at various dates and times from July 4th, 2021 through August 28th, 2021. Due to the issue with the beer bottle in the boat, and the gas cap being left hanging from its secure location, victim was forced to have his boat removed from the water and taken to Blue Springs Boat Company to have the tank emptied and to check it for contaminants.

During investigation of this case, Deputy have obtained video footage on one occasion where Mr. Bartsch is seen at his own boat and then going over to victim boat. The date of the video was during one of the events where something was moved or removed from victim boat. Deputy have put in a request to obtain additional footage in regards to the issues that occurred on August 28th, 2021.

According to the plea agreement, beginning on or about April 1, 2020, and continuing through the end of June 2020, Howell applied for four loans totaling $154,700 through the Small Business Administration's Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) and Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL) program. Howell submitted false and fraudulent applications under the names of two companies that did not qualify for the Covid-19 relief funds that Howell sought. Howell submitted two fraudulent applications to financial institutions seeking PPP funds and two fraudulent applications to the Small Business Administration seeking EIDL funds. As part of his fraud scheme, Howell submitted false supporting records and made false statements about the number of individuals the companies employed, the revenue generated, and the wages paid. Howell also made false statements about the corporate entities and the intended use of the loan proceeds.

The plea agreement reflects that Howell submitted an online application to the Small Business Administration in the name of Advanced Strategy Holdings, LLC, seeking $83,800 in EIDL funds. On the application and in the supporting documents, Howell falsely claimed that Advanced Strategy Holdings employed four individuals, generated $700,000 in gross revenue, incurred $0 in cost of goods sold, and paid wages of $440,000 in the 12 months preceding the Covid-19 pandemic. These claims were all false. In further support of the application, Howell submitted fabricated Internal Revenue Service documents. After receiving the loan proceeds from the Small Business Administration, Howell transferred the proceeds to his personal bank account, knowing that the loan proceeds were obtained fraudulently.

This case is the result of an investigation conducted by the FBI and the Internal Revenue Service's Criminal Investigation division.

The case is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney William A. Roach, Jr.

On May 17, 2021, the Attorney General established the COVID-19 Fraud Enforcement Task Force to marshal the resources of the Department of Justice in partnership with agencies across government to enhance efforts to combat and prevent pandemic-related fraud. The Task Force bolsters efforts to investigate and prosecute the most culpable domestic and international criminal actors and assists agencies tasked with administering relief programs to prevent fraud by, among other methods, augmenting and incorporating existing coordination mechanisms, identifying resources and techniques to uncover fraudulent actors and their schemes, and sharing and harnessing information and insights gained from prior enforcement efforts. For more information on the Department's response to the pandemic, please visit <https://www.justice.gov/coronavirus>.

Anyone with information about allegations of attempted fraud involving COVID-19 can report it by calling the Department of Justice's National Center for Disaster Fraud (NCDF) Hotline at 866-720-5721 or via the NCDF Web Complaint Form at: <https://www.justice.gov/disaster-fraud/ncdf-disaster-complaint-form>.

Horoscopes

Conflicting loyalties might come up when others draw you into the fray, Virgo. Stay out of it! You could get angry, and this wouldn't do you any good. Think of something else until you calm down and regain your perspective.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Daydreams and fantasies about faraway lands and exotic places might have you thinking about dropping everything and taking off for a while. You aren't usually impulsive, Libra, but today you feel restless. If you have no obligations, and if weather permits, go someplace where you can experience a change of scenery. We all need it from time to time.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Sudden demands on your resources by others may have you feeling used. You may be asked for a loan. Your doubts about the person's ability to repay might conflict with your sympathy for his or her situation. Your intuition is good today, Scorpio, so use it to read the true motives of those asking for favors. Grant only the ones you feel are appropriate.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Melancholy that doesn't seem to have any basis in reality may plague you today, causing friends, family, and your partner to worry. On days like this, Sagittarius, it's best not to give in to gloom, but rather to throw yourself into work and projects you love. Even though you may not feel like socializing, the company of others can get your mind back on track.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Today, Capricorn, you may feel out of sorts. You probably aren't ill, but you may be tired. You could also suffer from vague aches and pains that are most likely related to stress. Take the day off and relax. Soak in a tub and read a book. Your imagination is working overtime and you need to get your mind off your malaise. Fantasy novels may be your best bet!

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

Strange, exciting, and vivid dreams may inspire your creativity today. You might want to try a new art form or study the works of innovators. Romance and sex are especially important to you, Aquarius, though insecurities about a partner may restrain you from expressing your feelings. Take a chance - let the person know what you need right now. Your friend may be pleasantly surprised.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Concerns about your home or mother may mean you have to deal with some rather unpleasant or untrustworthy people. Lack of knowledge could have you in a quandary about how to address the situation. It would be a good idea to prepare by gathering all the facts you might need. Stay centered and focused, Pisces, and use your inner strength to hold out for the best for all concerned.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Juicy but perhaps unkind gossip might reach you today. You may doubt the motives of a close friend. Examine any tips you receive and ascertain the true facts before you accept it as truth. Much of the information is likely to be wrong. Your imagination is flying high, so you might want to try writing or drawing.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Money matters may seem vague today, Taurus. Uncertainty about how to manage your affairs might plague you throughout the day. Planning for the immediate future could also be difficult. You may be expecting some funds that may not come yet, or you might not be certain if you need to make a specific purchase. Keep occupied. You can't rush it, and obsessing does no good.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Troubles in the family may have you toying with the idea of moving or at least making some changes in your household. Someone close to you hasn't been honest with you, Gemini, and that also has you feeling a bit down. Kick around as many ideas as you can, but don't make any decisions today. It isn't the time. Wait until you're in a more positive and optimistic state of mind.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Your intuition and imagination are operating at a very high level today, and you may be inspired to write. However, you aren't likely to have enough ideas or information to actually put pen to paper. There's no rush, though. Take some time to allow the ideas to crystallize and set them down later. Someone in a bad mood may draw you into a quarrel. Brush it off and say you're busy!

Leo 7/23-8/22

There may be doubt about the outcome of a project that means a lot to you. It may involve financial problems or lack the support from others that you require in order to complete it. Your doubts are most likely groundless, Leo, but it doesn't hurt to hedge your bets a little and seek what you need elsewhere. This is likely to be a temporary delay. All signs indicate success.

Obituaries

Billy Joe Bowman of Greenback, TN formerly of Johnson City, TN passed away Sunday 22 August at the age of 91. A 1948 graduate of Science Hill High School, Billy Joe pitched the Hilltoppers to the 1947 State Championship and was inducted into the Science Hill Hall of Fame in 2007. His on the field successes led to a full scholarship at the University of Tennessee where Bowman collected wins over Princeton and USC in the semi-finals of the 1951 College World series in route to a runner up finish. After graduation in 1952, Bowman signed with the St. Louis Cardinals organization returning to Johnson City to begin his professional career. Billy Joe's baseball career was interrupted by a two-year stint in Korea serving his country as a transportation officer in the United States Army. With his military obligation complete, Bowman returned to baseball where he collected a 56-36 record in minor league baseball reaching AAA with the Rochester Red Wings and Houston Buffs. With his playing days over, Billy Joe joined the Houston Astros in various capacities including pitching coach and assistant manager working in the Astros organization 28 years. In his time with the Astros, Bowman had the pleasure of working with Hall of Fame players such as Nolan Ryan, Craig Biggio, Jeff Bagwell, and Yogi Berra. His time in Houston was capped by being named the 1995 Houston Astros Distinguished Houstonian. Bowman returned to his roots in East Tennessee in 1996 and continued the trucking company he successfully grew for 40 years. He remained lifelong fan of the Tennessee Volunteers and Houston Astros. In his final years he loved nothing more than attending Science Hill and Johnson City Cardinal games and being around the game he loved so much. He was preceded in death by his infant son Charles Frances Bowman, parents John Frank and Dorothy Randolph Bowman, sister Helen Arwood, and brothers Ferrell and Charlie all of Johnson City, TN. He is survived by his sons Joel Wayne Bowman (Terri) of Houston, TX and Lt Cmdr. John Paul Bowman (Jessica) of Lemoore, CA. Also, he is survived by his grandchildren Jessica, Josh, Jay and Diana along with brother Kenneth, six great-grandchildren and sisters-in-law, Mag and Becky Bowman. The family would like to extend a special thank you to Lou and Maxine Potenza for their vigilant care as Billy Joe's Johnson City neighbors and Toni and Miranda with Amedysis Hospice for the care they provided in his final year. A full military honors memorial service and burial will be held on October 18th 2021 at 11:00am at the Mountain Home National Cemetery in Johnson City, Tennessee.
