The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) awarded more than $116 million in year one, of a three-year, $348 million program, to organizations for community health worker (CHW) services to support COVID-19 prevention and control. CDC also awarded more than $6 million of a four-year $32 million program for training, technical assistance, and evaluation. CHWs are frontline public health workers who have a trusted relationship with the community and are able to facilitate access to a variety of services and resources for community members. Availability of this funding was announced on March 25th as part of planetary influences could enhance your sensitivity to everything, including your feelings. Let yourself cry if you need to - it can be cleansing. Try not

CDC

(CARES) Act and the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 will provide critical support to states, localities, territories, tribes, tribal organizations, urban Indian health organizations, or health service providers for tribes.

The amount each organization received was determined by population size, poverty rates and COVID-19 statistics. Five organizations received additional funding to conduct demonstration projects, which seek to develop innovative approaches to strengthening the use of community health workers through policy, systems, or environmental changes.

The funding is intended for recipients to address:

Disparities in access to COVID-19 related services, such as testing, contact tracing, and immunization.

Factors that increase risk of severe COVID-19 illness, such as chronic diseases, smoking, and pregnancy.

Community needs that have been exacerbated by COVID-19, such as health and mental health care access and food insecurity.

CDC strives to promote health equity through its National Center for Chronic Disease Prevention and Health Promotion (NCCDPHP), which seeks to eliminate health disparities and achieve optimal health for all Americans. In addition, CDC continues to work with populations that are underserved, at higher risk for, and disproportionately impacted by COVID-19. This includes ensuring resources are available to maintain and manage physical and mental health, and providing easy access to information, affordable testing, and medical and mental health care. Desmond McGraw, 42, Whittier Place Indianapolis, was charged with Alleging Possession of Counterfeit Money, Man/Sell/Del/Resale Sch. I, Simple Possession, and Tampering/Fabricating with Evidence.

Dep D Slempl LCSO, initiated a traffic stop on I75 SB, just past the 68 exit. The traffic stop was conducted on a black Nissan Altima, IN L161941, for inability to read the license tag. After the vehicle stopped, Deputy made contact with Mr. Desmond McGraw who was operating the vehicle. Mr. McGraw stated he could not find his identification and provided Deputy his name, DOB, and SSN. McGraw freely admitted his license was suspended. Upon checking his information with Loudon 911, the suspension of his license was confirmed. McGraw was removed from the vehicle to the front of his patrol car. When asked if there was anything illegal in the vehicle, McGraw freely admitted on body camera there was approximately 3 grams of marijuana in the front console area. McGraw consented to search of his vehicle. After arrival of Dep. Rodriguez, and Deputy Slempl, searched the vehicle and found the marijuana, both loose and packaged. Also, Deputy found what is believed to be seven counterfeit $100 bills in a first aid kit located in the glove box. While walking on the passenger side of the vehicle, Deputy located a pill bottle on the ground with McGraw's name on it. Inside was a brown plastic baggie with a white powder. McGraw stated on body cam initially it was "tea" and later a "supplement". He then admitted, on body cam he threw it out the front passenger window "because he was scared". Lt. Ezell - 937 was called to scene to identify the substance, which was identified as MDPV (cathinone) via TruNarc scan 1014. Due to the totality of circumstances, McGraw was arrested for possession of a Schedule I narcotic. McGraw was then transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Horoscopes

to wallow too much, as things will look better tomorrow. Take good care of yourself today.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Obsessive thinking may be something you need to look at today, Libra. Common areas for such behaviors are in the pursuit of money, power, success, and romance. There's a fine line between determination and obsession. If you fixate on the same thing day after day, it may be time to talk with someone about it. An expert can help you see what you don't want to see.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Don't act impulsively today, Scorpio. It can be easy to confuse this with spontaneity, but one has more thought in it than the other. Look before you leap! Think everything through from decisions to projects to contracts. Read the fine print more than once. When it comes to relationships, avoid trusting too quickly. Don't set yourself up for hurt by being gullible.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Is it time to take a more drastic approach to solving a problem, Sagittarius? If you've made several attempts to resolve your trouble to no avail, it might be something to consider. As long as drastic doesn't equate with destructive, you may find it works to try something more aggressive. Be careful. Think things through first. Run any ideas past a trusted friend.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Tap into your creativity to unblock your emotions today, Capricorn. This can be a more powerful tool than you realize. Creativity is a big part of you - almost as big as communication. Your emotions are linked to these, and all are interacting beneath the surface. If one is blocked, the key to releasing it is to focus on the other two. Express yourself through creativity and talking to someone close.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

You may need to deal with disapproval today, Aquarius. This will likely come from someone you see as a superior or authority figure, perhaps a parent or teacher. While it's important to listen, if what they have to say involves your personal life and how you live it, it's no one's concern but yours. No matter what you do, someone will disapprove of something!

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Taking time alone is essential for everyone, Pisces, but recognize when you're isolating yourself to the point where it's unhealthy. If you ask why you're taking this time and answer because you're avoiding something or someone, you need to reconsider. Things will only build and get worse under these conditions. You begin to work things out by facing whatever it is that's upsetting you.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Watch out for the green-eyed monster today, Aries. It can rear up before you even say the word "jealousy" if you're not on your guard. Many situations that cause this feeling are born of insecurity. If you aren't secure in your job, relationship, or family, and feel threatened by someone else, it's time to take a look at the reason. Look for answers rather than lash out.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

You may feel insecure about your appearance today, Taurus. This can be a vicious cycle, and the end result is almost always negative. Rather than picking yourself to pieces, find ways to accept your looks. Whether it's your weight, age, or anything else, if you can't accept yourself as you are, you'll always find something wrong no matter how many changes you make.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Jealousy might rear its head today, Gemini. The key to coping with it is to understand why you feel insecure. If you're jealous of a partner, why is this? Is trust an issue? If this comes up at work, is it because you don't feel recognized for your contributions? Examine the cause of jealousy. It's almost always a symptom of a deeper problem.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Arts and crafts may hold your interest today, Cancer. Even if you lean more toward sports, an artistic streak likely runs pretty strong in you. Creating can be richly satisfying, both in the process and in the finished product. Allow yourself the opportunity to explore this part of you. The day's energy will lend much to your abilities.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Getting along with others may prove challenging today, Leo. The planetary aspects can have you isolating yourself. You might feel impatient and easily annoyed. If this is so, stay solo if you can. If you can't, you'll need to curb a tendency to be argumentative or confrontational. Exercise patience and bite your tongue if that's what it takes. Avoid conflict.
