see Wanted pg. 4

Yanier Tellez, 32, currently of Tampa, Florida, was sentenced to 70 months in federal prison by the Honorable Clifton L. Corker, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee at Greenville.

Tellez, a citizen of Cuba, previously pleaded guilty to conspiracy to commit bank fraud and aggravated identity theft in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371, bank fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1344, and aggravated identity theft in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1028A. Tellez was ordered to pay $39,899.97 in restitution, and he will be on supervised release for three years following his release from prison.

According to court records, in November 2017, Tellez and a previously sentenced coconspirator, Lazaro Quintana Martinez, 26, of Tampa, Florida, travelled to East Tennessee from Tampa, Florida to commit identity theft. The two used one or more skimming devices to collect account num-

Braylon Courtney, 19, Bell Avenue Lenoir City, was charged with Theft of Property, Unlawful Carrying or Possession of a Handgun, Driving on Revoked/Suspended License, Speeding, and Financial Responsibility Law.

Officer Parmer LCPD, was on patrol when he got behind a gold Honda Pilot, bearing TN tag 176BDTN, traveling north on Old Hwy 95. By pacing the vehicle for approximately half a mile, Officer observed that it was traveling 38 mph in a 30 mph posted speed zone. Officer initiated a stop on the vehicle at Old Hwy 95 and Adesa Parkway where Officer made contact with the driver, identified as 19 year old Braylon Courtney. Officer ran Mr. Courtney through central dispatch to which he came back with a suspended driver license status and the vehicle he was driving did not have insurance on it. Dispatch informed Officer that Mr. Courtney was a suspect in a burglary in Knox County a few days prior to our interaction and that he was possibly in possession of a handgun that had been stolen from the residence. A wrecker was called for the vehicle due to it being uninsured, and upon an inventory of the vehicle, Officer located a handgun in the center console. The handgun was a Canik SFX Rival 9mm; the serial number of the handgun was ran through central dispatch to which it was entered in NCIC as stolen out of Knox County. Mr. Courtney was then placed into custody and Mirandized. Mr. Courtney waved his rights and stated he would speak with him. Officer inquired about the handgun that was located inside the vehicle to which Mr. Courtney informed him he had purchased it from the individuals that had burglarized the residence in Knox County. Mr. Courtney was transported to Loudon County Jail without incident and Knox County was notified of the status of the handgun. The above did occur in Lenoir City, Loudon County, Tennessee.

Theft

Albert Ybarra, 43, Honey Lane Friendsville, was charged with Theft of Property.

Officer H. Wilkes LCPD, was dispatched to Home Depot in reference to a shoplifting. Upon arrival, Officer met with AP staff to gain information. AP stated that a male came into the business and purchased three items using a Debit Card (US Visa x7279), an Amazon Echo, a wireless adapter, and construction wire. The male went to his truck and dropped the items off, and returned back to the business with the receipt. The male then went and picked up the same items off of the shelves again, and filed a return for those items using his receipt. The money was granted back to the male through his debit card ($160.59 total before tax). The above offender did have the intent to deprive Home Depot of their merchandise. During investigation, Officer was able to identify the male offender as Albert Thomas Ybarra (suspended drivers license status), who was driving his registered vehicle, a 1996 Dodge Ram 1500 (DWW-732). The offender left towards Simpson Rd, but officers were unable to locate the male. A report was generated for this incident and AP staff advised that he would contact Investigator Jon Yates if he received any more information regarding the incident. Pictures of the offender and the receipt have been attached to the report. All of the above did occur in Lenoir City, Loudon County, Tennessee.

Wanted

Charles Perry, 57, Burnette Loop Belvidere, was charged with Assisting other Agency.

James Mullins, 62, Ridge Avenue Lenoir City, was charged with Tampering/ Fabricating with Evidence, Criminal Littering, Driving Unregistered Vehicle, License Required, and Financial Responsibility Law.

Deputy Harrison LCSO, observed a blue Dodge Durango going northbound on Interstate 75 without a registration plate displayed. Deputy got behind the vehicle and initiated a traffic stop on Interstate 75 northbound at the 80 mile-marker. While the vehicle was moving to the shoulder, Deputy observed a small white object come out the driver's side window and shatter as it hit the ground causing debris to scatter through the lane of travel.

Upon making contact with the driver, James Mullins he stated he did not have a valid license and the object he threw out the window was a "cigarette".

Deputy spoke with the front-seat passenger and the backseat passenger Charles Perry who stated they were coming from Alabama to Ohio for work. Deputy had Mullins exit the vehicle and after speaking with him further, Deputy asked for consent to search the vehicle which he agreed. While conducting a search of the vehicle, Loudon County Dispatch advised Mullins was unlicensed out of Alabama, had multiple felony and misdemeanor warrants from surrounding states, and Perry had an extraditable warrant out of Franklin County for violation of a court order.

Dispatch also advised the vehicle was not registered to the driver and that insurance was unconfirmed. Both subjects were placed in custody and while conducting an inventory of the vehicle Perry stated Mullins attempted to hide a meth pipe and a small amount of meth in the vehicle behind the passenger seat as Deputy initiated a traffic stop.

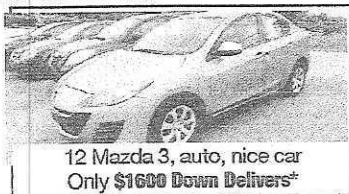

Deputy spoke with front seat passenger after receiving the statement from Perry at which point he stated the object Mullins threw out the window while moving to the shoulder was a meth pipe with meth inside. Mullins was read Miranda and when questioned about the object he continued to state it was a cigarette. MoneyMakers arrived and impounded the vehicle. Both Mullins and Perry were transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident.

This did occur in Loudon County, Tennessee.

bers and personal identifying information from unsuspecting customers. A skimming device was installed at a local business and would collect the credit and debit card numbers and other personal identifying information from customers who used the machine when making purchases. Once Tellez and Martinez obtained the account numbers and other information from the skimming device, they would re-encode that information onto magnetic-stripe cards such as prepaid gift cards and use the fraudulent cards to obtain cash, purchase money orders, and purchase gift cards at local ATM machines and local point of sale terminals throughout East Tennessee. Local store surveillance footage captured them committing their crimes, including footage from local Walgreens, CVS, and Kroger stores.

Upon return to Florida, Tellez was stopped for a traffic violation in Lee County, and he had thumb drives containing over 300 account numbers and corresponding customer information. According to court records, the average yield for each compromised account number was over $1,400 in fraudulent transactions. When stopped, Tellez also had a counterfeit gift card in his wallet that contained the account information of a resident of Greeneville, Tennessee, who banked with Eastman Credit Union. That card had the handwritten zip code for Greeneville on the back of the card.

Martinez previously pled guilty to the conspiracy and aggravated identity theft and was sentenced to 24 months in prison in the Eastern District of Tennessee. He was also sentenced to 51 months in prison in the Middle District of Florida for additional identity theft offenses.

Eastman Credit Union, a local financial institution that discovered fraudulent transactions, suffered actual losses from the scheme of $39,899.97.

The criminal indictment was the result of an investigation by the United States Secret Service, the Johnson City Police Department, the Kingsport Police Department, and the Lee County, Florida Sheriff's Office. The investigation was led by United States Secret Service Senior Special Agent Thomas R. Whitehead.

Assistant United States Attorney Mac D. Heavener, III represented the United States.

situation. Clear, honest communication is necessary in order to avoid misunderstandings. Try to remain objective. Don't let your emotions take control. Things will work out to everyone's satisfaction. The situation is temporary and unlikely to have lasting negative effects.

Sagittarius
11/22-12/21

If you've been planning a long trip by air, Sagittarius, today you might doubt whether you should continue with your plans. Money or safety might be the issues. Be aware that your fears may run away with you. The situation may be more secure than it appears. You might want to attend an online class or lecture, perhaps on computer science or some other technology. As with the vacation plans, try to view this objectively.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Today you might feel too overwrought to concentrate on whatever goals you're trying to reach, particularly if they're financial. Past issues might crop up at inopportune times but will still need to be released. If you aren't careful, this could get in the way of just about anything you need to do. Keeping cool is the most important thing to remember.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

You tend to be pretty self-assured, Aquarius, but self-esteem issues dating from long ago could surface today. You might feel like a schoolchild called on to recite. This could cause a few snags in your relationships or interfere with your effectiveness at social occasions. Try to remain objective. Don't lose sight of who you are. Don't let old insecurity interfere with your effectiveness.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Today you might feel a bit bloated and slow, Pisces, which could interfere with your daily routine. You could also feel unmotivated about work. You might not feel like exercising, but it's important that you do it anyway. Moving the body can clear your head and put you in the proper frame of mind to get on with your day. It can also help purge your tissues of all the excess toxins.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Today your job or another activity could require your artistic skills for a particular project, Aries. You may not be used to this, so it could throw you into a bit of a panic. There should be others around who can collaborate with you, so you will be all right. A tendency to be overly emotional could interfere with just about anything you try. Stay centered.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

A subject of interest that you've been pursuing could bring up some deeply buried emotions today, Taurus. You might want to retreat into your mind and try to make sense of it, although analyzing it intellectually may not be the answer. Avoid emotional confrontations. Things might be said that shouldn't be said, and they won't be easily forgotten. In the evening, watch a movie full of special effects.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

This could be a confusing day for you, Gemini. Financial issues might be complicated by computer glitches or failures in communication. Keep pushing, however, and whatever you're trying to straighten out will be resolved. An opportunity to participate in a project you've never tried before could have you doubting your abilities. Believe in yourself and then move ahead. There's a first time for everything!

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Financial issues might have you and your partner a bit more on edge than you need to be, Cancer. Perhaps money is tighter than usual right now, and you have to put off purchases you want to make. Try to work it out. This is a great day to reach a compromise in just about any touchy situation, because you should be in just the right space to see both sides of any issue.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Today your intellect is flying high, Leo. A number of new ideas, perhaps about political or social issues, might excite your curiosity and cause you to want to spend hours in the library or on the Internet. Mundane tasks still need handling, however. This might be frustrating because it takes you away from your quest. If you get the basics done quickly, you can return without causing any undue guilt.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Your imagination is working overtime today, Virgo, and you might spend hours at a computer writing or in front of an easel or piano creating your own brand of painting or music. This drive to create comes from the heart and shouldn't be ignored no matter what other issues come up. Take care of whatever needs to be handled and then follow your inspiration. You may be surprised at what you produce!

Libra 9/23-10/22

A conflict between your responsibilities to family and obligations to friends could rear its ugly head today, Libra. You might want to attend an event but need to deal with emotional issues in the home immediately. It could be difficult to keep a cool head under these circumstances. If you can, you should find a way to satisfy your family and go out. Step back and be objective!
