Federal Jury Convicts Bryan Cornelius On Multiple Drug Trafficking Conspiracies, Money Laundering Conspiracies, And Possession And Discharge Of A Firearm In Furtherance Of His Drug Trafficking Crimes

Following a six-day trial in United States District Court, Knoxville, Tenn., a jury convicted Bryan Cornelius, 31, of Knoxville, Tennessee, of Conspiracy to Distribute over 50 grams of Methamphetamine, Conspiracy to Distribute over one kilogram of heroin and over 40 grams of Fentanyl, Conspiracy to Distribute over 100 kilograms of marijuana, Conspiracy to commit Money Laundering, Distributing over 50 grams of Methamphetamine, and Possession and Discharge of a Firearm in furtherance of his drug trafficking crimes.

Sentencing for Cornelius is set for October 3, 2022, at 2:00 p.m., in the United States District Court before United States District Court Judge Thomas A. Varlan, in Knoxville, Tennessee. Cornelius faces a sentence of life in prison.

The evidence presented at trial included wiretaps of multiple cellular phones, multiple search warrants at various Knoxville residences, narcotics, firearms, and cash seizures. The evidence showed that Cornelius,

LCPD

Ion Lupianu, 40, Braeswood Blvd Texas, was charged with Criminal Impersonation, and Driving on Revoked/Suspended License.

Viorel Tudor, 25, unknown address, was charged with Criminal Impersonation x2.

Officer Miller LCPD, observed a Silver Hyundai Entourage traveling on Broadway. The vehicle's driver side brake light was not functioning properly. The state was also covered up on the drive-out tag by a license plate frame.

Upon Officer Miller stopping the vehicle, the driver provided an international driver's license with the name Ion Moliu. Moliu's true identity was found to be Ion Lupianu and he did not have a valid driver's license. Lupianu gave the International License with the name Ion Moliu in an attempt to hide his true identity. Lupianu was also found to have a warrant out of Texas.

The male passenger in the vehicle provided a Washington driver's license with the name Bargas. Bargas's true identity was found to be Viorel Tudor.

Tudor gave the Washington driver's license in an attempt to hide his true identity. Found in Tudor's wallet was a debit card with the name Bargas.

The female passenger in the vehicle was identified as Dabici. Officer Miller asked for consent to search the vehicle and consent was granted. Found in the glove box was a Bank of America card with the name Donato that no one would in the vehicle would claim.

DUI

John Goedeke, 29, Old Hwy 72 Rockwood, was charged with DUI, Driving without a valid License, and Seatbelt Law.

Deputy Harrison LCSO, observed a white Chevy Cavalier on Highway 321 with the driver not wearing his seat belt. Deputy conducted a traffic stop on the vehicle at Shoney's on Highway 321. Upon making contact with the driver, John Goedeke, he exhibited very exaggerated and nervous movements. Deputy asked if Goedeke had a valid license to which he stated he did not. Deputy had Goedeke exit the vehicle and while speaking with him further he stated he uses Suboxone and smoked two bowls of marijuana approximately 1 hour prior. Goedeke stated he had a marijuana pipe and grinder along with used needles in the vehicle as well. Deputy made contact with the passenger, at which point she stated she had a valid license but was not driving due to her being intoxicated. Deputy had the passenger exit the vehicle as well and while conducting a probable cause search, Deputy located a used needle in the passenger floorboard along with a marijuana grinder and pipe with residue in the center console. Deputy asked Goedeke if he would consent to SFSTs and ARIDE to which he did and performed poorly on both portions of testing. Based on the above facts Deputy placed John Goedeke in custody for driving under the influence. The passenger was released to a sober driver. Goedeke was read Tennessee Implied Consent and agreed to a blood draw. I transported him to the Fort Loudon Medical Center where the blood draw would take place, but while on scene Goedeke refused a blood draw. Deputy then transported him to the Loudon County Jail without incident.

Drug Crimes

a member of the Gangster Disciples street gang, was ordering narcotics from different sources of supply in California and receiving packages of methamphetamine and marijuana through the United States Postal Service (USPS), Fed-Ex, and UPS throughout 2019 and that he maintained multiple addresses across Knoxville to stash his narcotics, firearms, and cash to facilitate his narcotics distribution. In addition, the evidence showed that, in furtherance of his drug trafficking, at approximately 2:45 p.m. on November 21, 2019, Cornelius, along with two others, drove by the Stop-n-Go on Brooks Avenue and Cornelius fired fifteen rounds of 7.62mm into a Mercedes-Benz. The driver sustained two non-life-threatening gunshot wounds.

Cornelius was the one defendant in a 23-person indictment who proceeded to trial;

all other defendants entered guilty pleas.

Law enforcement agencies participating in the joint investigation which led to indictment and subsequent conviction of Cornelius included the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) HIDTA Task Force and the United States Postal Inspection Service (USPIS). The FBI HIDTA Task Force includes the Roane County Sheriff's Office, Knoxville Police Department, Knoxville County Sheriff's Office, Blount County Sheriff's Office, and Sevier County Sheriff's Office. The Tennessee Bureau of Investigation, the Drug Enforcement Administration, also assisted in this investigation by conducting drug analysis on seized narcotics in the case.

"This prosecution is part of the Department of Justice's comprehensive strategy to reduce violence and increase safety in the community by prosecuting violent criminals who use firearms in furtherance of their distribution of highly addictive and dangerous drugs, such as fentanyl and methamphetamine," said United States Attorney Francis M. Hamilton III.

"Illegal drugs are the scourge of society and the cause of devastation for many families. The FBI, along with our federal, state, and local law enforcement partners are committed to identifying, disrupting, and holding those accountable who are responsible for harming our communities through their illegal activities," said FBI Special Agent in Charge Joe Carrico.

"The Postal Service has no interest in being the unwitting accomplice to anyone using the U.S. Mail to distribute illegal drugs or other harmful substances," said Tommy D. Coke, U.S. Postal Inspector in Charge of the Atlanta Division. "We will continue to work with our law enforcement partners to keep dangerous drugs out of the communities we serve."

Assistant U.S. Attorneys Cynthia Davidson and Alan Kirk represented the United States at trial.

This case was part of the Department's Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force (OCDETF) and the HIDTA programs. OCDETF is the primary weapon of the United States against the highest-level drug trafficking organizations operating within the United States, importing drugs into the United States, or laundering the proceeds of drug trafficking. The HIDTA program enhances and coordinates drug control efforts among local, State, and Federal law enforcement agencies. The program provides agencies with coordination, equipment, technology, and additional resources to combat drug trafficking and its harmful consequences in critical regions of the United States.

911

Leticia Cortez, 36, Browder Hollow Road Lenoir City, was charged with Misuse of 911 Emergency System.

Officers responded to Browder Hollow Rd (Rambling Acres) in regards to a female calling in on 911 in a non emergency situation. Officers made contact with a Leticia Cortez, who stated that she was calling 911 because her sister kicked her out and she had no where to go.

The report further noted, Officers were previously at this residence the day before and informed Cortes of the consequences of calling 911 in a non emergency situation and that she would be arrested if she continued to abuse it. Dispatch advised officers that Cortes called 911 three times within a small time frame with no emergency situation. Cortes was placed in custody and transported to the Loudon Co jail without incident for abusing 911.

This did occur in Lenoir City, Loudon Co, TN.

Horoscopes

Today you might take up some sort of occult study, such as astrology, numerology, or alchemy that seems like Greek to you at first, Gemini. As a result, you could be tempted to abandon it.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

A friend might be in such a down mood that you wonder if this is the same person you know and love, Cancer.

Leo 7/23-8/22

A friend or romantic partner might need your advice, Leo, and want to discuss a few things that you don't really understand.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Today you might read a book on exercise or nutrition that seems a bit unsettling, Virgo. According to the book, you're doing everything wrong! Remember that what the author is probably outlining is a certain practice that worked for him or her.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Memories and emotions welling up from the past might excite your creative impulses today, Libra. You may not quite be able to understand what all of this means, but the pictures should keep coming to you nonetheless.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

A subject you're researching, perhaps for a class or workshop, might prove more difficult than you expected, Scorpio. The resources you consult might be very scholarly and thus difficult to read.

Sagittarius

11/22-12/21

A neighbor or relative might volunteer to help you with some chores around the house, Sagittarius, but you could sense that his or her heart isn't in it.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Paperwork involving money could be a real drag for you today, Capricorn. You'll have to get it done, but you'd rather be elsewhere. It might also seem a little confusing.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

A contract of some kind, perhaps involving the home, might need some careful consideration today, Aquarius. You could find it a little difficult to understand, as it could be full of fine print and legalese.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

You might pick up some rather disturbing thoughts from a friend, neighbor, or relative, Pisces. This person could be upset over something and not communicating his or her feelings.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Some gossip about a friend could reach your ears today, Aries, and it might seem a bit shocking at first. Money could be involved. However, don't accept what you hear at face value.
